

AROUND THE CITY

The Seaman's Mission.
The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Seaman's Mission will hold a special meeting this afternoon at 6 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

Will Build Large Stable.
T. H. Bullock, manager of the Imperial Oil Company, has secured two lots in the rear of their stables in Sheffield street on which it is the intention to build a barn the whole size of the grounds.

A Small Fire.
A small fire occurred in the woodshed attached to the cottage of the engineer of the Provincial Hospital, about five o'clock yesterday afternoon. It was put out without trouble. The damage will amount to a few dollars.

Closing One of His Stores.
Percy J. Steel is closing up his boot and shoe store on the Opera house, but will still conduct his business in the store on Main street. A rumor gained currency that Mr. Steel intended to remove to the city, but it is said he has no present intention of doing so.

Entertainment and Social.
An entertainment and social will be held Wednesday evening in the vestry of the Lincoln street church, Carleton, under the auspices of the Dorcas society of the church. As this society has been organized for work among the poor it is hoped there will be a large attendance.

Burial Yesterday.
The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Philip McCartney, Main street, will regret to hear of the death of their infant daughter, Phyllis Maud, which occurred Sunday morning. She was buried yesterday afternoon in Cedar Hill cemetery. Rev. B. H. Nobles conducted the services.

Col. McLean is Behind It.
It was stated yesterday that the Liberal party had taken no steps to file election petitions against O. S. Crockett, M. P., Thomas A. Harri, M. P., and George W. Fowler, M. P., any action that has been taken or may be taken is at the instigation of Col. H. H. McLean, who is said to be satisfied with the way his interests in Sunbury-Queens have been safeguarded. Today is the last day that petitions can be filed.

Missionary Evening.
A very pleasant and profitable evening was spent in the Ludlow street church, Carleton, last night. The programme was under the auspices of the missionary society, and was called a Missionary Journey Round the World. Papers on the work in India, Italy, Austria, Norway, France, Germany, Hungary, Russia, Lapland, Poland and other countries were read by members of the society. The pastor, Rev. W. R. Robinson, presided.

Newfoundland Society Formed.
The natives of Newfoundland resident in this city have decided to have an organization all their own, and at an enthusiastic meeting held last evening in the Market building it was launched on the lines of similar societies, now in existence in Toronto, Montreal and Sydney. The object will be to advance the social and material welfare of the natives of the ancient colony and the new organization starts under most favorable auspices. At the meeting last evening, Isaac Mercer was chosen president; Thomas Spence, secretary; George Oldford, recording secretary; James Donnelly, financial secretary; and Arthur Green, treasurer. An executive committee was named, consisting of William Donnelly, chairman, Thomas Swain and Henry Butt. The next meeting will be held on Thursday, November 23rd, when all men owning Newfoundland as their birthplace, are requested to be present.

AN ENGLISH BUYER HAS PRAISE FOR OUR APPLES

Visitor From Manchester Declares Apples Shown at N. B. Fruit Show are Finest He Has Seen.

An interested visitor to the fruit show last evening, was James Blackburn, fruit, vegetable, flower salesman and commission merchant of Sheffield Market, Manchester, England, who is on his way to the Annapolis Valley to buy apples.
"I never saw anything like this in England," he said to a Standard reporter.
"It is simply magnificent. I never in my life saw a display of apples to approach this. The apples are equal to the best in any country and in some cases superior. Those Golden Russets there, for instance, are the finest I ever saw. And the fruit is well put up—as well as anything we get from California."
"How would the New Brunswick apples go on the English market?"
"Splendid, if they were shipped in large enough quantities."
"Are you thinking of handling New Brunswick apples?"
"Not now. I am going to Nova Scotia. We buy most of our apples there or in Ontario. We must have a large supply. A consignment of less than a thousand barrels is no good to us in a big market like Manchester or Birmingham. I understand that apple raising is a new thing in this province, and that it is difficult to get large quantities. I would not care to handle a lot of small consignments of many varieties. What we want are big consignments of a few varieties."

"New Brunswick ought to be able, though, to ship apples to the English market in the fall and winter. You have a good steamship service from St. John and most Canadian ports are the best during those seasons. So far as I gather, your fruit raisers need cooperation to collect their apples and get them ready for the market. They can't market their fruit as individuals to any advantage. By co-operation they could gather their fruit at central points, and prepare them for shipment in large quantities. An important consideration with the fruit dealer in the big cities of Great Britain is a steady supply in abundant quantities. It does not pay to pick up small lots all over the country. Co-operation would enable your fruit raisers to solve that phase of the problem of getting into the British market."

COUNT MARCHETTI ENJOYED HIS TRIP

Italian Sportsman Enthusiastic Over Fine Big Game Hunting to be Found in New Brunswick.

Count Giovanni Marchetti, who with D. W. Clinch has been on a hunting trip for the last three weeks in the neighborhood of Perch Lake, arrived in the city last night. He reports having had a most satisfactory trip in every way. He thinks the climate here in October a beautiful one, and intending to come again next year and bringing some of his friends with him.

The count shot two moose, one of which had a spread of 32 1/2 inches with 22 points. The head was secured and brought to this city where it is being mounted. He considers this one of his most satisfactory trophies and next to his elephant or lion. He expressed his deep sense of obligation to Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer, the former surveyor-general for permitting him to shoot two moose. One of these is for scientific purposes and is destined for his museum.

The party after leaving the city went to Perch Lake where they secured the services of Guide Charles Raynes. The weather was on the whole very unfavorable for hunting. Count Marchetti spoke very highly of the nature of the accommodation provided for him stating that everything possible was done for his comfort. He considers Guide Raynes a very capable man and fully the equal of guides in any part of the world in which he has ever hunted.

The larger of the two moose shot was first sighted a mile away from their camp. It was accompanied by two cows and after it had been seen what a fine head he carried, the party started to stalk him in order to get a favorable shot. On the way they had to wade rapids which took them a quarter of a mile they had gone about 150 yards from them, and lying down, Count Marchetti fired from a high bluff hitting him. The animal jumped to his feet and started to run when a second shot from the count's rifle passed through his kidneys. The bull then started down the steep hillside on a run, when a third shot fired by the count broke his spine, paralyzing him. But life was not yet extinct and the moose dragged himself about 25 yards on his front legs, but after receiving a fourth shot he rolled over dead.

By this time it was too late to return to the camp, and the whole party were obliged to sleep that night without blankets by the side of the dead moose. Next morning they waded the rapids and returned. The piece of land where Count Marchetti shot the moose was never hunted over before. He expects on his return to Italy to write a book relating his experience in New Brunswick. He expresses himself as enthusiastic over the hunting to be enjoyed in this province.

UNION SERVICE WAS HELD IN ST. DAVID'S

Stirring Sermon by Rev. George Farquhar, of Rothesay and Hampton, Heard by Large Congregation.

The union Thanksgiving service held by the Presbyterians and Congregationalists of the city in St. David's church yesterday was attended by a good congregation. Rev. J. H. A. Anderson presided and Rev. T. T. Tucker, of the Congregational church, led the devotional exercises. The sermon was preached by Rev. George Farquhar, of Rothesay and Hampton. The choir of St. David's was present and led the singing.

In the course of his sermon Mr. Farquhar touched upon the greatest of our heritage as Canadians. Those who were doing the greatest work in our national upbuilding were those who were shaping the moral and spiritual forces of our population. Not only for prosperity, but even for salvation should we offer thanksgiving to God. Both had a part to play in the training of a people.

Canadians are face to face with a difficulty in the unequal distribution of the forces for the evangelization of the people. Many districts with a sparse population are ill provided with the means of grace, while others where there was only room for one or two churches had half a dozen. This problem called for the very wisest leadership and finest statesmanship in its solution.

"And an interruption has come," the preacher continued, "our fellow subjects might gather and hold a great religious celebration, and we bow our heads in reverence. Their greatest orator in his blunt English fashion might rail upon us and our soulless religion and we but shrugged our shoulders and allowed him the same liberty of speech we claimed for ourselves."
"When a feeble Italian prisoner sitting amid the ruins of a vanquished empire, resurrects an age worn parchment it has about the same interest for us as the finding of a cannon ball at Louisiana. But when that parchment is a decree No. 20, and it is published in our land among British subjects when it is repugnant alike to conscience, religion, law, common sense and common morality, and when we see fellow subjects of our own blood by it as if it were from the mouth of God, it is time again that we were back fighting the battles of our faith."
"When we see the fire go out on a family hearth, when we see love struggling with obedience and faith, when we see husband leaving wife and wife leaving husband, when we behold happy homes blasted, lives wrecked and ruined, children sent into the world with the stigma of an everlasting shame upon their lives, already this feeling has found its issue in murder and when this monstrosity is perpetrated upon our people in the name of religion and God, it is high time that we showed to the world that it is contrary to the law of Christ, in defiance of His teachings and merits the just condemnation of heaven, and not only seek to aid and instruct, but use our best endeavors to free our fellow subjects from such an unholy yoke."

HUNGRY CROWDS ATE THIRTY-SEVEN BIRDS

Turkey Supper at Temple Fair, Yesterday Very Largely Patronized - Fair a Success in All Departments.

Yesterday was a very successful day at the Temple fair, in Temple of Honor hall, Main street. The annual Thanksgiving turkey dinner of Alexandra Temple attracted a very large patronage more than 350 people sitting down to the table. Thirty-seven turkeys with hams in proportion were cut up and the competent staff of waitresses were kept busy satisfying the needs of all.

The dinner was served from 5:30 till 8 o'clock and during those hours the games upstairs in the dining hall were suspended. As soon as the tables were cleared, however, these were again in full swing. The games consisted of a bowling alley, billiard, and tossing the plates, and were all patronized liberally. Downstairs in the fair proper, all the booths were looking their prettiest and every one of them was thronged with customers the whole evening.

The orchestra was present and gave a programme of pleasing selections, both in the afternoon and evening. During the afternoon, a short but excellent vaudeville programme was presented which was received with great appreciation.

MONCTON WON FROM ST. JOHN IN FAST GAME

Football Match Yesterday was Won by the Railway Town Team by a Score of 12 to 4.

Special to The Standard.

Moncton, Oct. 30.—The football game here today was witnessed by about 400 people, and those who attended were well repaid for their attendance as the game was a very fast one. The St. John team were somewhat weaker in their scrum than when they played in St. John on Saturday, and as the Moncton scrum had been strengthened by the addition of Rae, who had been unable to get away on Saturday, Moncton easily had the better of the argument in the scrum-work, but the St. John team's quarters and halves worked together in great style, getting away for many good runs while their fullback, Finlay, saved the situation on numerous occasions by his beautiful punting. Gilbert and Malcolm, quarters for St. John, were always on the ball and played brilliant football while Churchill and Schottish in the half line did excellent work. For Moncton, Donald, Cochrane, McIsaac, F. Brown and Humphrey were the most prominent. At half time the score stood 3 to 0, but in the second half Finlay made a drop kick for goal, scoring 4 points for his team, while Cochrane for Moncton added 3 more points, making the final count 12-4 in Moncton's favor. James Lightizer referred to the satisfaction of all. The lineup was as follows:

Moncton	Goal	St. John
F. Brown	Halves	Finlay
Donald	Churchill
C. Brown	Schottish
W. Brown	Black
G. Cummings	Howard
	Quarters
McIsaac	Gilbert
Humphrey	Malcolm
	Cochrane
	Forwards
MacKasey	Stubbs
Rae	Grierson
Sewell	Brooks
McParlane	Turner
Campbell	Lockhart
Doherty	Keefe
J. Cummings	Shaue

JUDGE RULES AGAINST THE McNAMARA DEFENCE

Los Angeles, Oct. 30.—Judge Walter Bordwell accused the defense in the McNamara murder case today of trying to circumvent his ruling and rejected two challenges against formalism, their challenges having formed the basis of his accusation. He also refused to the defense the privilege of challenge against a juror or who said he would not convict a prisoner in a capital case on circumstantial evidence alone, holding that this challenge was available only to the state.
