ALBERT CO.

Albert, Aug. 11.—A Sunday morning interview between a middle aged man and two sons of a neighbor resulted in a hearing of two charges of assault in the Police Court here today. The parties belong up De Moize Creek and the alleged assault of the older man to persuade the younger of the boys to maintain a respectful silence in his presence by a slight old fashioned slap in the face was taken as a burning insult to his family by the elder of the boys and a blow followed with the clenched fist which left the mark on the right cheek of the middle aged farmer and narrowly escaped putting his eye out of commission. After hearing the evidence the magistrate told them they were both liable as violators of the law. And after a friendly consultation the parties agreed to ask leave to withdraw the charges which was granted by the court. Each party paying his expenses, they went home the best of friends.
