MRS. C. H. VANDERBECK
WINS GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Mrs. C. H. VANDERBECK

Playing in fine form, Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, of the Philadelphia Cricket Club, of Philadelphia, Pa., proved equal to the task of preventing the women's national golf championship trophy from taking a third journey abroad, defeating Mrs. W. J. Garvin, of Shirley Park, England, in the final of the annual U. S. G. A. tournament on the links of the Oswestry Country Club.

The match resulted much as expected, although the international character was sufficient in itself to keep a large gallery interested right up to the last shot, irrespective of whatever the opinion was as to the outcome.
