Work Put Through Without a Hitch

Water from Lake Latimer Only Off About Twenty Hours While Work of Connecting up New Pipe Around Dry Lake Was Accomplished.

The water from Lake Latimer was turned off at 2.30 on Saturday, and was turned on again at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the work of connecting up the new pipe around the Dry Lake having been put through without a hitch and in a shorter time than was expected. While the Little River service was on the water gauge at the Water Department's office on Carmarthen street gave a pressure of five and six pounds, there were no complaints sent in. On some of the higher levels, however, it is understood there was no water for a time, but the householders had laid in a temporary supply. At 9 o'clock last evening the water station on Carmarthen street reported a pressure of 40 pounds, which was about the normal pressure during last week.

In the twenty hours while the Little River service was on the water in Lake Latimer rose two inches.

The new piece of pipe which was connected up yesterday is constructed of reinforced concrete, and is 42 inches in diameter. It runs around Lake Fitzgerald, known as the Dry Lake, for 2,000 feet, and replaces about 800 feet of pipe, which is laid across the centre of the lake. Owing to the poor bottom of the pipe across the Dry Lake sagged in places, rupturing the concrete pipe, and has been leaking considerably for years. After the water at Lake Latimer was shut off, the Dry Lake really became dry for the first time for years. In order to drain off the pipe the drain cocks near Pinnies Hill were opened.

The work of laying the new section of the pipe on the north side of the Dry Lake was done by the Lockport Pipe Company of New York, and Mr. C. J. Bruce, agent of the company, was on hand to watch the connections being made. The actual work of making the connections was, however, performed by the staff of the water department under the direction of Superintendent Sewell. Com. Jones, City Engineer Hare and G. A. Ballentyne were on hand while the work was being done.

Com. Jones stated last evening that with the completion of this work the water mains from Lake Latimer to the city are now in good condition, and that he was not anticipating that any considerable expenditure would be needed on this part of the service for years to come.

Citizens soon noticed the change to Little River water, which is somewhat discolored, and inferior to Lake Latimer water, which is regarded as equal to any water supplied any city in Canada.

OCCIDENT AND ORIENT BLEND AT WEDDING

Chinese Couple Married by Presbyterian Clergyman Using the Orthodox Ceremony—Oriental Customs Followed.

Special to The Standard.

Montreal, July 25.—A Chinese couple married by a Presbyterian minister, using the Orthodox marriage ceremony of that church, was a unique event in this city today. There was a blend of the Eastern and the Occidental, the singing of hymns in Chinese constituting the Oriental portion of the ceremony. The wedding was a striking proof of the fact that the people of the far East, who are settling in this country, are accepting the basic principles of Occidental life, even if in details of householding they cling to their Oriental traditions.

The bride, Miss Grace San Kee, daughter of H. San Kee, of Quebec, a Canadian born and speaks English fluently. The groom, Harry Lee, is manager of a restaurant in the central part of Montreal. The native customs came into play when the newly wedded couple left the Mission Hall where the ceremony took place. They started out on a round of visits in an automobile. Etiquette demanded that all the friends of the groom be visited. The bride had a maid with her who carried trays of cups and saucers and at each household where a cup of the finest China tea to the hosts. In a little while, red in color, inside of which was a coin, generally a Canadian quarter. This apparently was not a contribution to give the bride a financial start in life, but a talisman of good wishes.

The round of visits finished, the wedding feast was served. The bride party took their places at the tables and an Oriental group of musicians began operations on a song and instruments resembling bagpipes. On completion of the dinner fireworks were set off and the Chinese honeymoon to Toronto began. The remainder of the festivities to be held when the couple return on Sunday.

Everything Bright For Celebration

Mass Meeting of Labor Unions This Evening to Discuss Joining Forces—Travellers and Acquatic Committee Report Good Progress.

Everything is booming in making arrangements for the big celebration on August 14-15, the Soldiers' Joy Day, and the reception to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. The general committee, pleased with the progress being made by the other committees and every man is working overtime to make every feature of an effort will be the most successful.

The commercial travellers held a meeting Saturday morning and discussed their plans for the two days and the Knights of the Grip were placed on hand to report on the progress. S. S. Sims who stated that although they had not yet procured a place in which the running supper for the soldiers and the high class programme of entertainment and dances are to be held he was satisfied that such a place would be secured and would be able to make the announcement soon.

The committee appointed to handle the programme, decorations, catering and other details were all working away busily, and Mr. S. S. Sims, "When the time comes for the heroes of New Brunswick to be entertained on hand and that the commercial travellers are all ready and will be able to put up a couple of nights' enjoyment that the soldier it was decided to invite the out of town travellers to come to St. John and assist the local members.

Mr. J. Wilkins, the hustling chairman of the parade and band committee, and the members of that committee realize that they have a big concert on hand and that a great amount of work must be accomplished in a remarkably short space of time, but everything is working along well and having the largest parade on the morning of August 14th that this old city ever experienced.

It was decided to be made today or tomorrow by the committees to call on every large manufacturing establishment in the city and vicinity and invite the employees to enter into the spirit of the day and join their forces with others in the grand parade. Large numbers of men and numerous floats are being organized, and it is expected that persons can be called from the men of the manufacturing plants and the labor organizations when it comes to making a good display and in providing floats for a parade.

F. A. Campbell, labor organizer and chairman of the Trades and Labor Council, was quite favorable in his remarks to the idea and entered into the scheme most enthusiastically. He stated that he would call a mass meeting this Monday evening, in the Longshoremen's hall on Water street, when members of all labor organizations in the city are requested to be present to take up the matter of the parade on the 14th. Mr. Campbell pointed out that it has been about a decade that there will be no parade in St. John on Labor Day and there is no doubt that the different labor bodies will be quite willing to turn out in large numbers in honor of the soldiers who enlisted and fought the battles for the King and Country.

Members of labor unions in Canada and the States enlisted in many thousands; thousands of these brave men have returned while many others have paid the supreme sacrifice. It is up to the labor organizations to assist in this coming parade for it will be remembered that on previous occasions when the labor bodies were seen in procession it was a feature. It has been a long time since organized labor has been seen on parade in this city, and the prospects are when the different labor organizations are called to the attention of the members of the different unions for a meeting tonight, has been short but a large representation is expected. The letter carriers have taken kindly to the idea of turning out and a meeting of this body is to be called immediately for the purpose of deciding on the matter. The fire department will also be requested to take part, and in fact every establishment where there is a body of men employed will be asked to participate and any other organizations that have not been invited by the committee are requested to notify the secretary of the parade committee, as this is to be a general parade open to all and the time is so limited that it will be next to impossible for the committee to get in touch with all.

J. Fred Belyea, who is convener of the aquatic committee, announced those chosen on that committee with him as follows: Edna Rose, the only surviving member of the famous Paris crew, honorary member: J. A. Gregory, T. T. Lantallum, Thomas O'Leary, Alexander Peterson, Roy Hanson, Harry Belyea, Dr. W. L. Ellis, Harry Ervin and W. L. Stewart was chosen treasurer.

Mr. Belyea announced that everything was moving smoothly and the different crews were getting in pretty good shape for the coming races. A meeting of the committee is called for tonight in the West End Athletic Club rooms, City Hall, for the purpose of drawing up a programme of events. The parade committee are called to meet again this evening to further their plans.

WILL PROHIBIT THE IMPORTATION OF CANADIAN CATTLE

London, July 25.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The Board of Agriculture has decided to continue the prohibition of importation of Canadian store cattle, not because such importation would now be specially dangerous to British herds, but because it would be felt a menace to the security of the British farmer and check the development of an industry absolutely essential to national prosperity.
