Why do Some Women Grow Homely so Soon?

That's a question we ask ourselves every day as we watch the daily crowd in great cities, in villages and towns. Women nowadays begin to lose their good looks before they are twenty-five; the lustre leaves their eyes, and the color their cheeks, and in its place comes dulness, sallowness, muddiness, or any unhealthy pallor—and presto! beauty is gone.

Wives and daughters, you do not take proper care of yourselves, that's why your good looks vanish. Our grandmothers and great grandmothers were wiser in their generation than are we today. They did not allow themselves to be so driven as we are, for their steady, continued health gave them strength enabling them to keep abreast of their work which, when it was finished, left them tired, but happy, not as we find ourselves today, bilious and constipated and generally forlorm.

Their secret will be found

Their secret will be found in the regular use of herb teas, prominent among them being preparations of clover tops and clover roots. When the old four-masted Furness liner St. Ronans was running to Boston.

The Norwegian barque Prince Victor, thirteen days from Darlen, Gs., with a cargo of pitch pine, bound for Liverpool, arrived at Helifax Monday morning to land her captain, I. G. Sorensen, who is second in command. The St. Ronans was 18 years old when she gave up the ghost a few days ago off Cape Race, and bearing the name of Orion under the Danish flag.

Boston.

The Norwegian barque Prince Victor, thirteen days from Darlen, Gs., with a cargo of pitch pine, bound for Liverpool, arrived at Helifax Monday morning to land her captain, I. G. Sorensen, who is ill with melarisl fever. The barque was brought in by Mate Hans Hansen and is at quarantine. Captain Sorensen has been removed to the Victoria General Hospital. I, H. Mathers is the vessel's agent.

The large British sailing ship Canara left Ilolio on April 26 with a cargo of sugar for Delaware Breakwaerar, and it is probable she will be ordered to Boston to discharge cargo, as she did about a year ago, when Capt. Thomas Grady was to command her. She is owned at St. John, N. B., and Capt. Grady was given charge of the new Thomson line steamer Canara, running from the provinces to Manchester. Capt. Swatzidge, her present skipper, was sent by the owners to join the Canara at Mystic wharf, Boston, where she was loading a full cargo of lumber for the River Platte.

Hospital. 1, H. Mathers is the vessel's agent.

A fine of $200 and six months imprisonment can be inflicted upon any person outside the regularly authorized government officials who insists in boarding a vessel from foreign countries before she is moored in the harbor of Boston. Such is the law, and indirectly the treasury department refer to the runners of sailors' boarding houses there and at other American ports.

Deaths and Burials.

The remains of the late Mrs. John Sears, mother of His Worship Mayor

A proud and happy father was Capt.
Samuel F. Stanwood when he brought the old, reliable and speedy steamer Yarmouth into the south side of Lewis wharf last Friday from Yarmouth, N.S.. with a large freight of fish, etc., and 91 passengers on board. The ship was profusely decorated with fiags and banting from her deck to trucks in honor of the recent marriage of his daughter Winnifred to Mr. J.B. Corning, an enterpriseing young business man of Yarmouth, N.S. The happy bridal couple were aboard the vessel, and are making an extended tour of Boston before settling down at Yarmouth.

Sears, mother of His Worship Mayor Sears, were intered Monday after search when I had several of the services at the house and grave, and at Trinity church Rev. T. Dickenson officiated. Early Thursday morning, the three-masted British schooner Sainte Marie, Capt. Morehouse, from Hamilton, Bermuds, hauled into Central wharf, Boston, and began discharging a cargo of 7,887 crates of onions. This is the third cargo of this nature received from the island this seasor. Capt. Morehouse reported passing a large quantity of wreckage in the galf stream, consisting of hard pine timber and other material, evidently but a short time in the water. It was doubtless from the deckload of some vessel bound to a New England port from the south.

Schooner Abana will load laths.
