New Travelling Regulations

Persons Embarking at U. S. Seaports Must Procure Permission Before Leaving Canada.

UNDER an order issued by the Secretary of State, Washington, effective November 11th, 1918, all persons going from Canada to foreign destinations by way of United States seaports must procure permission for embarkation before leaving Canada.

Such permission must be arranged for either by executing declaration and procuring visa on passport before one of the American Consuls in Canada, or by making formal application before any of the United States Immigration officers located in Canada upon forms furnished by the said officers.

In order to allow sufficient time for investigation, transmission of papers to Washington, etc., applications should be filed either with the Consul or the Immigration Officer at least 17 days prior to the date of proposed departure.

The State Department invites special attention of prospective travellers to the fact that unless they have obtained visa by an American Consul, the said Department must decide whether or not departure from an American port will be allowed; such decision being based upon the application submitted through the immigration officers. Passengers are accordingly warned not to proceed to the port of embarkation until they are in possession of either the Consular visa, or proper certificate from the U. S. Immigration authorities showing that permit for departure has been granted.

The foregoing applies to all persons not citizens of the United States, and it is effective regarding all destinations, including Mexico, U. S. Insular possessions, etc., but not including Bermuda.

United States citizens seeking to proceed to foreign points are required to have passports issued by the State Department, applications for same being obtainable from the various American Consuls.

Penitentiary for Life

John Johnston, the Bulgarian, twenty-two years of age, stole a coat from a section house on the C.P.R. the sixteenth of September, and when the section men, Messrs. Carlton Wall and Mattingly undertook to arrest him, the accused shot Wall, killing him almost instantly. Johnston could not speak or understand English, and Mr. Louis Karskowsky, of Smiths Falls, a countryman, acted as interpreter. After the evidence of Mr. Mattingly was taken, counsel for the crown agreed to alter the charge from murder to that of manslaughter. This was agreed to by Mr. C. J. Foy, counsel for the accused, and to which counsel pleaded guilty on behalf of Johnston. The meaning of the charge was made known to the accused, after which Chief Justice Latchford addressed the prisoner, stating that nothing was left for him but to pronounce sentence. Before doing so the Chief Justice strongly commented on the practice of foreigners, and others carrying firearms, and suggested that foreigners who had been residents of Canada for some time and knew the danger and criminal offence being committed by so doing, should endeavor to impress upon new arrivals the error of following this practice. In reply to a question Mr. Foy informed his Lordship that he had asked Johnston why he carried a revolver and the prisoner said it was the practice in his country and that since coming to Canada all his companions had continued the practice. His Lordship then pronounced sentence on the prisoner which was a life sentence in Kingston Penitentiary.

Kissed the Union Jack

Because he was alleged to have refused to place Victory Loan Bond literature on his motor car, a number of residents of Pembroke called at the office of Mr. W. Litke, a Pembroke hvyman, put him into his car and drove him to the Pembroke victory headquarters and there compelled him to placard his car with Victory Bond stickers and kiss the flag Monday morning. It is said that information reached the Pembroke branch of the Great War Veterans association that Mr. Litke was not sympathetic to Victory Bonds, and the officers of that organization took forcible means to compel loyalty. Another resident of Pembroke whose name has been forced to undergo similar treatment. During the peace celebration on Monday he met a man carrying a flag, and it is alleged passed some sneer, whereupon the bearer took the law into his own hands, knocked the scoffer down and compelled him to kiss the flag.

An Ottawa girl who has seen service in France, Saloniki, and England returned to Canada recently in the person of Nursing Sister Laura Gamble, Associate of the Royal Red Cross, who has been overseas for the past three and a half years. She went to France in May, 1915 with the Toronto University unit which occupied No. 4 General Hospital at Rouven. After six months there, Miss Gamble was sent to Saloniki. About a year ago she returned to do hospital duty at Basingstoke, England, and she is now staying with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. Gamble, before taking up duty in Canada again. Miss Gamble is a graduate of Toronto General hospital.

Tuberculosis Sunday

Under the direction of the National Sanitarium Association, with the endorsement of the leading clergymen of all denominations School Boards, Sunday November 24th, and Monday, November 25th, have been appointed for the annual observance of Tuberculosis Day in the schools. The recent Epidemic of Influenza, has undoubtedly left many of its victims in a weakened condition of health. With vitality lowered, they have less resisting force and may readily fall into Consumption. If you would guard against this disease, watch your health. Avoid needless worry and overwork. See that your food is nourishing, and see that it is served at regular intervals. Above all, get out into the sunshine every minute you can spare. See that the windows in your place of business and in your home are open, so that day and night you may be assured of a plentiful supply of pure, fresh air.

Four Austrians hailing from Galt, were each fined $200 and costs in the police court at Brockville for a violation of the Ontario Temperance Act. In default the quartette want to jail for three months. They were caught on a Grand Trunk train returning from Montreal with 20 gallons of alcohol in their possession. The inspectors who made the arrest had information that the men had been boot-legging on an extensive scale.

Knox Church—Beckwith

A large congregation assembled last Sabbath morning, glad to go into the house of the Lord, after the doors of the sanctuary had been closed for a month. It was the minister's first appearance with his flock for five months, four of which were spent in mission work in Saskatchewan. There was a cheerful ring in the songs of praise, especially the old 124th psalm, "Now Israel may say and that etc.," with which the service opened. The sermon was on the timely theme of comfort and help in times of affliction and distress, such as that brought about by the recent epidemic, the text being in Psalms CVIII: 12-13, "He brought down their heart with labor; they fell down, and there was none to help. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distress." The sermon pointed out the great privilege and duty of prayer as a means of comfort and of healing, and help in suffering and care, and how that the divine hand and the divine blessing were traceable, in all the calamities that afflict the children of men. A special service in observance of the coming in of victory and peace was held in the evening at which the minister preached on "War in history as one of the judgments of God." The praise songs were especially appropriate and the service concluded with the singing of the national anthem.

The After Effects Of Dreaded La Grippe

Worse Than The Disease Itself Victims Left Weak, Nerves and Worn Out

La Grippe, or Spanish influenza is the epidemic now sweeping over all America is called, is one of the most dangerous diseases known to man-kind. Anyone who has felt its punge is not likely to forget the trouble. La Grippe, or influenza, starts with a slight cold and ends with a complication of troubles. It lays the victim on his back, it tortures him with fevers and chills, headaches and backaches. It leaves him a prey to pneumonia, bronchitis, consumption and other deadly diseases. It is quite possible to avoid la grippe by keeping the blood rich and red by use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—a tonic medicine which enriches the blood and strengthens the nerves. If, however the disease attacks you, the patient should at once go to bed, and call a doctor before complications set in. That is the only safe thing to do. But to recover your strength after the severity of the attack has passed, you will find Dr. Williams' Pink Pills an unsurpassed tonic. Through the use of this medicine all the evil after effects of this trouble will be banished. This has been proved in thousands of cases throughout Canada, where in previous seasons la grippe has attacked them. Among the many thus restored to full health is Miss Irene Bootes, Portsmouth, Ont., who says:—"I take much pleasure in recommending Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, because I have proved their worth in my own case. Last winter I had a severe attack of la grippe and it left me weak and all run down. I had severe pains in the chest and under the arms, palpitation of the heart and attacks of neuralgia which left me with the feeling that life was scarcely worth living. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and began their use only on the principle that I would try anything that might better my condition. I had only been using the pills a couple of weeks when the pains began to leave me. Gradually my strength returned, my appetite improved and in a little more than a month I felt all my old time vigor had returned. I am sincerely glad I was persuaded to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I shall always have a good word to say for them."

Hugh S. Miller of Beachburg

There will be general sorrow at the news of the death of Hugh S. Miller, of Beachburg, who died on Wednesday last. It was only the week previous that his son, a young man died of influenza, followed by pneumonia. Hugh S. Miller, was well and widely known, being engaged in the undertaking business, and came from Coulonge 21 years ago. He was Clerk of the Township of Westmeath, Secretary of the Telephone Association, and Treasurer of the Chosen Friends, in all of which activities he was an able and ardent officer. He contracted influenza, and pneumonia followed, from which he succumbed, at the age of 55 years. Besides his wife he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Gracie, of Smiths Falls. In religion he was a Presbyterian.

A Coincidence in Pictures

In The Observer last week there was published a picture showing Canadian soldiers rejoicing with the villagers of Sardenmont, France, on their liberation after four years of occupation by the Germans, and following this there came to us yesterday a copy of the London Daily Mirror sent by Lieut. James Coxford, formerly of Pembroke, to his sisters in Ottawa, and in which the same picture was printed. Accompanying it was the explanation that the young soldier sitting between two elderly French ladies was Lieut. Coxford's batman, who was since seriously wounded at Cambrai and is now in an English hospital, while nearly all the soldiers were members of Lieut. Coxford's company.—Pembroke Observer.

OBITUARY

FRANCIS JAMES FRY

November fifth, nineteen eighteen, saw the passing of Francis James Fry, for some years Chairman of the House of J. S. Fry & Sons, Limited, of Bristol, England.

For nearly seventy years Mr. Fry held a leading position in the development of the House of Fry, and to his commercial genius, unfailing tact, and gracious courtesy the worldwide success of the House was very largely attributable.

It may be stated with confidence that Mr. Fry was a man who, while he had hosts of friends, never made an enemy in business, politics or religion—yet he consistently maintained independence of thought. His sterling honesty and his courteous tolerance of opposing views had always ensured him respect.

At the ripe age of eighty-four years, and after a long life of active usefulness, the Empire loses one of its Merchant Princes, and the World is today poorer by the loss of one of her finest Citizens.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the bereaved family, and our hope that the sadness will be brightened by the memory of many kindly acts during the long life so nobly spent.
