About two months ago Women's Christian Temperance Union of Kentville presented to the value of $18.00 the six Sunday Schools of town, for essays to be written on the following subject: "The value of the observation of the Christian Sabbath in the life of the individual and the community." The prizes were offered in each school of between the age of 12 and 18 years and $1 to pupils between the age of 8 and 12 years, the former to a list of 50 words and the latter of 300 words. Theresia E. Keyser, aged 17, won the first prize in the Roman Catholic school. Her essay appears in this edition. Mary Tobin, aged 8, won the prize in the junior department and her essay will appear in a later edition. The prize essays members from other schools will appear later. The Union is much pleased with the work done.

Rev. A. J. Prosser will preach at the Forrest Street Baptist Church, Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.
