

connection with the League, some of which were published in pamphlet form. He is now a mem. of the Council of the Brit. Empire League. Resigning his position on the Empire, Nov., 1893, he devoted himself to ind. literary work, and in that capacity, has contributed many valuable papers on Can. and the Empire to such well-known exponents of public thought as the Westminster Rev., the Asiatic Quarterly, the United Service Mag., the Forum, the Am. Journal of Politics, the Chautauquan, the Can. Mag., the Week, etc. Among his published works are: "The Life and Work of Sir John Thompson" (1895); "The Life and Times of Mr. Gladstone" (1895); "The Sword of Islam; or, Suffering Armenia" (1896); and "Queen Victoria: Her Life and Reign" (1897). He has now in preparation, assisted by a corps of eminent writers and specialists, a Can. Encyclopedia, which promises to be a most comprehensive survey of Can. history and Can. affairs. It will be published in 5 vols. Politically, Mr. H. is a Con., and was Presdt. of the Young Men's Con. Assn., 1891-92. He has also held office in the Sons of Eng. and in the Orange order. He was hon. Secy. of the Macdonald Memorial Comte., Toronto, and was a del. to the Congress of the Chambers of Commerce of the Empire, London, 1896. For some time he was a mem. of the Toronto High Sch. Bd. In 1897 he was elected a mem. of the Am. Hist. Assn. He is a mem. of the Ch.-of-Eng., and unm.—510 Spadina Ave., Toronto; Albany Club.

"His career has been in every way creditable, and greater triumphs, we feel sure, are in store for him."—Gazette.

"A man of readiness, energy, facility of expression and the capacity for rapid accomplishment of work."—H. E. the Earl of Aberdeen.

HORNE, His Honour Charles Robert, Co. Ct. Judge, was b. at St. Vincent, W.I., Jan. 22, 1835. Ed. in Eng., he was called to the Ont. bar, 1862, and practised at first at Amherstburg, and afterwards at Windsor, Ont. After serving as Depty. Judge for a brief period, he was apptd. Co. Ct. Judge for the Co. of Essex, Sept. 23, 1883, and a Judge in Admiralty of the Exchequer Ct., 1897. He was also R. O. under the E. F. Act. He is a mem. of the Ch. of Eng., and m. 1864, Caroline, dau. of the late Maj. J. F. Elliot, and relict of Rev. E. H. Dewar, M.A., Rector of Sandwich, Ont.—Windsor, Ont.

HORNING, Lewis Emerson, educationist, was b. in Norwich, Ont., Apl. 2, 1858. His great-grandfather, Peter Horning, was from Penn., and was the first pathmaster of the roads where the city of Hamilton now stands; on both sides of the house he is connected with Joseph Rymal, ex-M.P. Ed. at Brantford Coll. Inst., and at Victoria Univ., Toronto (B.A., Prince of Wales gold med. and silver med. in Phil., 1884), he took a post-graduate course in Phil. at the Univ. of Breslau and Göttingen (Ph.D., 1891). He taught first in the Peterboro' Coll. Inst., 1884-86. In the latter year he was apptd. Asst. Prof. of Classics and Mod. Languages in Victoria Univ. He spent 2 yrs. and a half in Europe on leave, and on his return, Oct., 1889, assumed the duties of his present chair, as Prof. of German and Old Eng., in the same institution. He has been examr. in Arts for Toronto Univ., and one of the Central Bd. of Examrs. for the Dept. of Education, Ont. His literary contributions include a German composition for schs. (1875), besides numerous articles in the periodicals of the day, including several on Canadian literature, the history and progress of which he has made a special study. Politically, an advanced Lib.; in religious belief, he is a Meth. He m. 1885, Beatrice Lillian, dau. of Chas. Nixon, of "Woodview," St. George, Ont.—560 Church St., Toronto.

HOSKIN, Alfred, Q.C., is the s. of Richard Hoskin, of Holsworthy, Devonshire. B. there Mch. 21, 1843, he was ed. at Holsworthy and, after coming to Can., at a private sch. in