

X. And be it enacted, That the District Judge of the said Court of Queen's Bench when acting under the authority of this Act, may allow and tax such costs and expenses on proceedings under the same as they shall think reasonable and just, and may direct the same to be paid, wholly or in part, by such parties -as in the opinion of such Court of Judge ought to pay the same, and may direct that any part thereof be paid or secured before the act upon which the same are to accrue shall be done by any officer of the Court or other person.

District Judge or Court of Queen's Bench may tax costs or proceedings under this Act.

XI. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act or any order made under it, shall be construed to limit or affect any power vested by law in the Vice Chancellor or in the Court of Chancery for Upper Canada ; and any order lawfully made by such the said Vice Chancellor or Court of Chancery, shall supersede and annul any order of a District Judge made as aforesaid, which it shall expressly set aside or with which it shall be incompatible.

Powers given by this Act to be subordinate to those of the Court of Chancery.
