

- Carleton on alteration in mode of, 1004 (see pp. 1026-7); lands may be held in both provinces in free and common socage, 1014, 1048-9. See also Tenure of Lands, and Lands.
- Lands, Indian, the rights of the Indians to be maintained, 20, 33; proclamation proposed regarding lands reserved for Indians, 152, 154, 320; prohibition of private purchase of, 154; protection from encroachment on, 166; policy of the British government regarding the losses sustained by Joseph Brant and others, 806 (see also p. 809).
- Langlois, Benj., member of Board of Trade, 724.
- Laws, the representatives of the people to frame a civil code "as near as may be to the laws of England," 165, 340; power given to the Assembly to make laws, 175; regulations to be observed by Governor in Council and Assembly in the framing and passing of, 185, 304; suggestions for retaining the laws of France or making those of England general in the province, 362; advantages and disadvantages of either method, 366-9; suggestion by Carleton to follow English law in criminal, and French law, in civil cases, 370; retention of certain parts of French Civil and the English Criminal law, 532, 533; discussion of system best suited for Canada, 979; proposal for general repeal unnecessary, 982.
- Laws of Canada, Carleton orders an abridgement of French laws to be drawn up, 289, 300.
- Laws of England, criminal and civil, in force in Quebec, 328, 345; question of legality of introduction of English law, 349 (see p. 371).
- Laws and Customs of Canada, admitted in Court of Common Pleas where cause of action arose before October 1, 1764, 207, 330; Carleton suggests that they be followed in civil cases, 370; inhabitants desire to be governed by, 420, 422, 504, 507; to be followed in civil matters, 558, 573; petitioners for a House of Assembly desire continuance of, in certain matters, 744 (see p. 820); referred to, 755, 759; question raised as to whether the law is applicable to English born subjects, 841, 843; opinion of the Solicitor General that matters relating to, should be decided by Privy Council, note 1, p. 843; ordinance of 1787 provides for the statement on the record of the Common Pleas of any judgment pronounced upon any law or custom of the Province, 858; Canadians at Montreal claim that their common law was promised them by the articles of capitulation, 921, 924; retention of, advised by Finlay in settlement of real estate, 961; the noblesse petition the King for maintenance of, note 1, p. 962. See also French Law, and French Law and Customs.
- Leake, Major Robert, signs petition to the King on behalf of the Loyalists, 777.
- LeBrun, M., French lawyer, letter to Maseres, 531.
- Lees, John, member of committee of British inhabitants, 489, 501, 587.
- Legal forms, 408, 409, 687, 790.
- Legal System, address of French citizens, relating to, 223.
- Legge, Capt., in command of British forces at Masquinongé and Machiche, 88.
- Legislative authority of Governor, to be exercised only with consent of assembly, 348.
- Legislative Council. See Council.
- LeLoutre, Abbé, the cause of trouble in Acadia, note 2, p. 168.
- LeMaistre, Capt., sends to committee of council a list of vessels on Lakes Ontario, Erie and Huron, 901.
- Lery, Chaussegros de, member of the legislative council, 489, 697, 713, 741, 746, 795, 816, 854, 869, 870, 871, 872, 937, 939.
- Lester, Robert, member of committee of merchants of Quebec, 909.
- Letters of Administration, objections to the form of granting, 894, 898.
- Levesque, Francis, member of legislative council, 697, 713, 746, 795, 816, 871, 899, 913.
- Levis, Marquis de, references to, 7, 10, 11, 27.
- Levis, Marquis de, sends letter to Amherst re capitulation of Montreal, 7.
- Lewes, Sir Watkin, takes part in discussion of Canadian affairs in British House of Commons, note 1, p. 955.
- Lieutenant Governor, Carleton acts as, note 2, p. 298; Hamilton dismissed from office of, note 2, p. 780; Governors of Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, to be styled Lieutenant Governors, with reduced powers, 810; directed to correspond with, and relinquish command to, Dorchester whenever he deems it necessary, 814; appointment of, for Western Districts, recommended by Carleton, 959. See also Burton, Carleton, Cramahe, Hamilton and Hope.
- Lisburne, Lord, member of British Board of Trade, 393.
- Lisle, M. de, chaplain of the garrison at Montreal, 532.
- Livius, Peter, Chief Justice, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 703, 704, 706, 718, 719, 721, 723.
- Livius, Report of Board of Trade on his dismissal by Carleton, 698; no charges against him as chief justice, 698; review of his course as member of Legislative Council, 698; Board of Trade concluded that there were no grounds for his dismissal, 704; proposes an amendment to judicial system of Quebec, note 1, p. 706.
- Livingston, James, merchant at Sorel, letter written by him, intercepted and sent to Dartmouth, note 1, p. 668.
- Longueuil, M. de, member of legislative council, references to, 12, 28, 697, 713, 816, 854, 869, 870, 871, 937, 939.
- Lords of Trade, see Board of Trade.