

LITERARY

REMEMBERING

a white-skirted house
bound in trellis green
where tea roses dangle
scented summers long

ponytailed leaps
from the garage roof
saddle shoes skip
in agate paved
pussy willow-whiskered lanes

rag-tag games of kick-the-can and knock-out ginger
as pheasants fly on corner lots and garter snakes slide for cover

sly bing-cherried mouth white mice secret in the attic seance and ouija
candled gatherings

glass jars of tadpoles
and Nana's preserves
summer for the taking

Diane Reid

*Are you interested in helping with the distractions section, or applying for the position of Distractions Editor for the next school year? If you are, please contact Jennifer at the Bruns office.
Bruns Rm 35 SUB
Phone 458-4983*

ARTHUR DOYLE

FOR PRESIDENT

Here are the weekly winners of the "Spot the Buttons" contest.

Pictured from left to right are:

Marielle Angers, co-organizer of the campaign, Dave Lavigne and Margaret Gregg, this weeks winners of a pair of Levis 501 jeans.

We will be drawing for the last two winners this week so make sure you get spotted wearing your Levis 501 jeans.

QUALITY NEVER GOES OUT OF STYLE.

March 16, 1990
SPORTS
PORTS
PORTS
PORTS
SPORTS SE

Co-Editor

by M

The UNB
took it on
weekend's
Basketball
Despite exc
efforts, they
defeated in b
the tourname
and then by
time against
Regina Con
by only two
end had fall
27 points. T
was similar,
emphatic a s
half the Red
by six on t
point loss.

The Red
hopes going
contest aga
Dalhousie
played this year, and d
points, D
Carolyn S
Bloomers w
against Reg

For a hal
first half
Regina's C
star, wa
ineffective
defense. H
Patterson,
devastated
offensive
Bloomers v
strong effo
the offensi
to be an
problem.

With jus
left in the
tied at 30
ball up co
point shot
trip in Lordon lau
of her ow
the rebou
Jackson.
three poin

At