

20964

Cleveland, Ohio, November 29th, 1914.

G. N. Gildersleeve,
26 Broadway,
New York City.

Dear Sir:--

You will no doubt recall some correspondence, which has passed between us, relative to a possible connection with the work which Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King is to undertake, my last letter being to the effect that I was about to take up a residence in this city, and in that letter I advised you that I would give you my Cleveland address as soon as I was located, agreeable to that I will say that my home address here is, 1531 Lakewood Avenue, Lakewood Cleveland Ohio.

I am still very much interested in the matter and would consider a change at almost any time. I will therefore esteem it a favor if you will kindly keep the matter before the Hon. Mr. King, and when the time is opportune for him to consider the engagement of assistants, I shall hope to be considered, feeling as I do that I could be of great assistance to him in the work.

Trusting that I may hear from you or he regarding the matter and thanking you for past courtesies, I am sir,

Very sincerely yours,

Frank Gregg

Frank Gregg
1531 Lakewood Ave.,
Lakewood, Cleveland
Ohio.

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume 23

PUBLIC ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA