Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen,
320 Bay Street,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Mr. Meighen:

When I wired you yesterday about the possibility of your accepting the invitation to be the chief speaker at Truro on the 14th I knew you would be using your own good judgment in the matter, with the feeling that your welcome back to Nova Scotia would be a hearty and cordial one.

But even if you did accept that invitation, or preferred to defer your visit until August as originally planned, I would feel very much honored if you would be my guest at Chester for as long as you cared to stay. The cottage there is a roomy and comfortable one, and is situated right at the water's edge in what you will agree is the real "Torquay of America". I am sure you would enjoy a stay there where there would be servants to attend to your comforts and convenience.

If you will indicate when you would be here and approximately how long you would expect to stay I would be delighted to make the necessary arrangements.

With kind personal regards and all good wishes,

Yours faithfully,
