*****The money for Edith Jackson, about whom I wired you on the 20th instant, has been placed in the bank to the joint credit of herself and the Superintendent General as trustee. Her bank book is now in my safe at the office. In this matter please advise me as to whether I may turn this over to Indian Agent Robertson, who, I suppose, will be given authority to draw money for her should she require to do so at any time.

(Sgd.) W.E.Ditchburn,

Inspector of Indian Agencies.
