

|                                                            |                                                                         |
|------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Barber Joseph, senr                                        | Cleary Martin, section boss                                             |
| Barber Mark,                                               | Cleary Martin, jr, salesman                                             |
| Barber Wm & Bro, paper manufac-turers                  | Cole Bros, (H W and J W) butch-ers                                  |
| Barclay Wm, book-keeper                                    | Cole F E, fireman                                                       |
| Barker Jno R, blacksmith                                   | Cole Francis, fireman                                                   |
| Barton Wm, moulder                                         | Coleman James, laborer                                                  |
| Belisle J E, cutter                                        | Cook Rev G B, (Church of Eng-land                                   |
| Bell Chas, laborer                                         | Copeland David, paper stainer                                           |
| Bell Hugh, weaver                                          | Copeland Gabriel, farmer                                                |
| Bell James,                                                | Costigan James, shoemaker                                               |
| Benham Alfred                                              | Coutts Rev Jas, (Baptist)                                               |
| BENNETT HOUSE, Robt Ben-nett, prop, see advt    | Cowie George, baggage man                                               |
| Bennett L L, photographer anddentist                   | Crawford Bros, (John & Wm) plan-ing mills                           |
| BENNETT ROBT, prop BennettHouse                        | Creech Joseph, salesman                                                 |
| Bird Jno, shoemaker                                        | Creech Samuel, farmer                                                   |
| Blewen Gabriel, shoemaker                                  | Creelman Bros (R and R I) knit-ting machine manufacturers           |
| Bootty Wm, laborer                                         | Crone John                                                              |
| Bradley Jas, farmer                                        | Crowley Patrick, wagon maker                                            |
| Brennen Thos, laborer                                      | Culp & McKenzie, (Hiram Culpand Daniel McKenzie) carriagemakers |
| Brinkerhoff H B, brewer                                    | Darby Wm, blacksmith                                                    |
| Brown Wm R, cabinet maker                                  | Dayfoot John B, shoemaker                                               |
| Brownridge J H, watches, clocks &c                         | Denord Jos, switchman                                                   |
| Bulger Patrick, expressman                                 | Dewart Fred, tailor                                                     |
| Burns Nelson, teacher                                      | DOMINION TELEGRAPH CO,James Donnelly, agent                         |
| Burrows John, laborer                                      | DONNELLY JAMES, booksellerand stationer See advt             |
| Cain James, barber                                         | Drinkwater S S, harness maker                                           |
| CANADIAN HOUSE, H HSpiers, prop, see advt       | Druette Fred, tailor                                                    |
| Cavanagh C G, station agent N & NW R's                 | Drummond Jas, harness maker                                             |
| Chapman Wm, marble cutter                                  | Dukes Thos, brickmaker                                                  |
| Christie John, carpenter                                   | Dundas Wm, carpenter                                                    |
| Claridge Emerson                                           | Eagan Robt, telegraph operator                                          |
| Clark Bros, bakers                                         | Errington William, laborer                                              |
| Clark C M, baker                                           | Erwin Robt, butcher                                                     |
| Clark Duncan, hotel-keeper                                 | Fraser James, clerk                                                     |
| Clark Elias, hotel-keeper                                  | Frazer Geo, farmer                                                      |
| Clark Henry, baker                                         | Finnis Murray, assistant Bank ofHamilton                            |
| CLARK'S HOTEL, Thos Clarke,proprietor, see advt | Fisher Thos, veterinary surgeon                                         |
| CLARK THOS, proprietor Clark'sHotel                    | Fitts Jas, lime burner                                                  |
| Clark Wm, baker                                            |                                                                         |