Fraternal Visit.

A large number of the members of Branch 48, C. M. B. A., New Germany, paid a fraternal visit on Monday evening to Branch 31, of this city. Upon their arrival they were met at the Commercial hotel by the reception committee, consisting of S. A. Heffernan, J. C. Kelcher, F. Franks and M. J. Doran, and conducted to the C. M. B. A. hall, where a very interesting meeting was held. Short and pithy speeches on C. M. B. A. matters were made by President Korman and Grand Representative Coffee, of Guelph Branch; Rev. F. Webeler, of West Branch, Mich.; Rev. Stephen Forster and President Louis Kramer. New Germany. After the business of the inecting was concluded the members of the two Branches adjourned to the Commercial hotel and partook of a sumptuons supper, which was gotten up in mine host Reinhardt's best style. After supper all adjourned to the German hall, where a soft evening was spent. Among those from New Germany were noticed Rev. Stephen 10. Stetz, Lawrence Spitzig, Jacob Kremer, John Bruder, Matthew Broham, E. Schmuck, Adam Starr, J. Schoffer, Harry Halter and Geo. Broham.—Guelph Herata, Feb. 9.

tiring efforts, having alwins the income his death.
Truly we have lost an homorable Brother whose presence and wise counsel will be always missed and whose place will be hard to fill; his almost heart-broken wife has lost a kind and affectionate husband; while his four little children (the eldest being but twelve years of age) are left to grow up without the protecting hand of a loving father. Assuredly all who knew him will unite with me in saying "May his soul rest in peace." A MENDER OF BRANCH 29.

I recommended Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic to several of my parishioners, for nervous prostration, one for alceloilsm, seven for whom I am assured the Tonic was more than money or time could procure—a perfect cure in their cases. Hoping this will suffice to prove the excellent effect of the remedy, I thank you for the extreme kindness shown to the poor in the past.

REV. FATHER J. A. COOK.

COLUMBUS, Neb., October, 1888.

Mr. Martin Sisenek, of Duncan, Neb., 22 years old, suffered from fits of falling sickness since his very infancy. The fits returned almost every second day. Some time ago I read about Pastor koonig's medicine, and ordered some for him. It is over one year since he used the medicine, but no fits returned any more.
