in the cottage door, watched her disappear, little thought they were gazing upon one whose mission would be to tend the sick and wounded on many a battlefield, and how, in years to come, men dying far away from home would raise themselves upon their pillows to "kiss her shadow" as it passed them."

PRINCESS IRENE.

Lucy Perry was a little girl who liked to have her own way. She thought she knew better than anyone else what was best for her, and so she was often in trouble.

"Would you like to go with me fishing?" asked her papa.

"O, yes! but Princess Irene must go too." Now the Princess was a beautiful wax doll, with

How Some of Our Readers Can Make Money

Having read of the success of some of your readers selling Dish-washers, I have tried the work with wonderful success. I have not made less than $9.00 any day for the last six months. The Mound City Dish-Washer gives good satisfaction, and every family wants one. A lady can wash and dry the dishes without removing her gloves, and can do the work in two minutes. I got my sample machine from the Mound City Dish-Washer Co., of St. Louis, Mo. I used it to take orders and sold 12 Dish-Washers the first day. The Mound City Dish-Washer Co. will start you. Write them for particulars. Ladies can do as well as men.

lovely curls, dressed in pink silk. "Better not take the doll, Lucy," said her father. "Young ladies don't go fishing in pink silk."

Lucy was determined, and so Princess Irene accompanied them to the creek. Here she put the doll on a stone under a large tree, where she was sure it would be safe.

Suddenly she heard a loud bark, and there came Rover, dashing down to the bank, and with such force against the Princess that he knocked it over into the creek, and Lucy saw the water close over her darling!

The creek was deep at this point, and Lucy's father had to fish some time for it. When he at last drew it from the water the wig was soaked off, the paint gone from its face, and the pink silk ruined.

All the crying in the world could not restore poor Princess Irene.

Had Lucy remembered the fourth commandment, she would have obeyed her father's suggestion, and the dolly would never have met with such a sad fate.

TRUE BRAVERY.

In the heat of passion, Robert had done something he was ashamed of, and sorry for after the excitement had passed away.

"I wish I hadn't let my temper get away with my good sense," he said; "but it's done, and what's done can't be undone."

"But isn't there a way to overcome the effect of wrong-doing, to a great extent?" asked a voice in his heart.

"How?" asked Robert.

"By owning to one's blame in the matter," answered the voice. "Confessing one's fault does much to set wrong right. Try it."

Now, Robert was very much like all the rest of us—he hated to admit that he was in fault. "I'm wrong—forgive me," is a hard thing to say. But the more he thought the matter over, the more he felt that he ought to say just that.

"It's the right thing to do," he told himself. "If I know what's right and don't do it, I'm a moral coward. I'll do it!"

So he went to the one he had wronged and confessed his fault frankly, and the result was that the two boys were better friends than before, and his comrade had a greater respect for him because he had been brave enough to do a disagreeable thing when it was presented to him in the light of a duty.

My boys, remember that there's quite as much bravery in doing right, for right's sake, as there is in the performance of a grand and heroic deed the world will hear about.

The Right Thing.

A New Catarrh Cure which is Rapidly coming to the Front.

For several years, Eucalyptol Guaiacol and Hydrastin have been recognized as standard remedies for Catarrhal troubles, but they have always been given separately and only very recently an ingenious chemist succeeded in combining them, together with other antiseptics, into a pleasant effective tablet.

Druggists sell the remedy under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and it has met with remarkable success in the cure of nasal catarrh, bronchial and throat catarrh and in catarrh of the stomach.

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark House, Troy, N.Y., says: "When I run up against anything that is good, I like to tell people of it. I have been troubled with catarrh more or less for some time. Last winter more than ever. Tried several so-called cures, but did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago, I bought a 50 cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and am glad to say that they have done wonders for me and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are the right thing."

Mr. George J. Casanova, of Hotel Griffon, West 9th Street, New York City, writes: "I have commenced using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and already they have given me better results than any catarrh cure I have ever tried."

A leading physician of Pittsburg advises the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in preference to any other treatment for catarrh of the head, throat or stomach.

He claims they are far superior to inhalers, salves, lotions or powder, and are much more convenient and pleasant to take and are so harmless that little children take them with benefit, as they contain no opiate, cocaine or any poisonous drugs.

All druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 50 cents for full size package, and they are probably the safest and most reliable cure for any form of catarrh,
