OBEYED ORDERS OF GEN. LUDENDORFF

Germany Cancelled No Annexation Principle and Gained Free Hand

Berlin, Jan. 12.—The Rhenische Jestfalische Zeitung of Essen, in an Westfallsche Zeitung of Essen, in an article dealing with the Brest-Litovsk peace conference, says Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary, evidently decided to obey the orders of General von Ludendorff, the first quarter master, general in delivering his address.

His speech at Brest-Litovsk," says the newspaper, "was heard with rethe newspaper, "was heard with re-lief by the whole German nation, for it means Germany has cancelled her no-annexation-principle and thereby gained a free hand regarding Bel-gium, Longwy and Briey."
