

What Society is doing. A BLINDED SOLDIER TO HIS NUNSE. I know you only by your tears. I felt them falling on my face.

But the warm touches of your soul. Guides me to the darkened years. Sweet recollections of my days. I know you only by your tears.

Dr. C. C. Plesette will spend the week-end at his home, Darling street, from Toronto. Miss Charlesworth of London is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Hollinrake, Wellington street.

Mrs. Alexander McIntosh of Walkerville is the week-end guest of the Misses Ashbury, William street. Miss Frances Dempster left this week for the Grimsby fruit district, where she is working for the National Service Commission.

Mrs. W. L. Creighton and Miss Gould left on Friday for Buffalo where they will be the guests of Miss Manchester. Mrs. George Pfahler, of Philadelphia is expected in the city the first of the week, and will be the guest of her aunt, Miss Bennett, Brant Avenue.

Miss Wilma Jones arrived home Thursday evening from an extended trip through California and the Canadian North West. Mrs. Andrew Hughes and little daughter, who have been spending the summer in the city with Mrs. Cleghorn, Abbot street, are leaving for their new home in New York early in the week.

A number of the dancing set intended to motor over to the Simcoe Golf club to-night, where they have been invited to be present at the annual dance held by the members of the club. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waterous, Jr., have returned from their wedding trip, and are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Waterous, until their new home on William street, is ready for occupancy.

The Dufferin League ice cream booth at the Dufferin school proved very successful, in the neighborhood of $50 being raised for the soldiers and Red Cross work of the league. The ladies who acted as judges of the knitting, home cooking and sewing, also donated a number of the prizes won by the scholars.

At a meeting of the directors of the Brantford Golf club and a number of the members, held at the club house Tuesday evening, it was decided to have a big hold day at the links on Thanksgiving Day, when the Royal Canadian Golf Association, the governing body of golf in this country, has asked every golf club to stage a patriotic day with the object of raising $25,000 for the Red Cross. The Brantford program will consist of a match the morning, followed by a luncheon and a big bridge and tea, which will be in charge of the ladies' committee. There will also be putting, approaching, driving and other events. An admission fee of one dollar will be charged, and it is hoped several hundred dollars will be raised for the Red Cross. The proceedings will wind up with a dance in the evening.

Mr. W. F. Paterson returned home on Friday from a business trip to Montreal. Miss Marion Brewster and Mr. Walter Brewster left the first of the week to attend Toronto University. Mrs. A. T. Tipson, of Edgerton street, has returned home after spending two months at Port Elgin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Bunnell returned the first of the week from a trip to Montreal. Mrs. A. D. Garrett has returned from a short visit to Toxawanda and Buffalo. Mrs. Harry Cockshutt and Miss Grace Bunnell have returned from a few weeks spent in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Murdock and little daughters, Ruth and Mabel, Toronto, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hughes, Lorne Crescent. Miss Frances Dempster left this week for the Grimsby fruit district, where she is working for the National Service Commission.

Mrs. W. L. Creighton and Miss Gould left on Friday for Buffalo where they will be the guests of Miss Manchester. Mrs. George Pfahler, of Philadelphia is expected in the city the first of the week, and will be the guest of her aunt, Miss Bennett, Brant Avenue.

Miss Wilma Jones arrived home Thursday evening from an extended trip through California and the Canadian North West. Mrs. Andrew Hughes and little daughter, who have been spending the summer in the city with Mrs. Cleghorn, Abbot street, are leaving for their new home in New York early in the week.

A number of the dancing set intended to motor over to the Simcoe Golf club to-night, where they have been invited to be present at the annual dance held by the members of the club. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waterous, Jr., have returned from their wedding trip, and are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Waterous, until their new home on William street, is ready for occupancy.

The Dufferin League ice cream booth at the Dufferin school proved very successful, in the neighborhood of $50 being raised for the soldiers and Red Cross work of the league. The ladies who acted as judges of the knitting, home cooking and sewing, also donated a number of the prizes won by the scholars.

At a meeting of the directors of the Brantford Golf club and a number of the members, held at the club house Tuesday evening, it was decided to have a big hold day at the links on Thanksgiving Day, when the Royal Canadian Golf Association, the governing body of golf in this country, has asked every golf club to stage a patriotic day with the object of raising $25,000 for the Red Cross. The Brantford program will consist of a match the morning, followed by a luncheon and a big bridge and tea, which will be in charge of the ladies' committee. There will also be putting, approaching, driving and other events. An admission fee of one dollar will be charged, and it is hoped several hundred dollars will be raised for the Red Cross. The proceedings will wind up with a dance in the evening.

A very successful meeting of the district presidents of the Kith and Kin societies, was held on Monday afternoon, the reports given by the various societies show a very active and busy year. The ladies have been very busy throughout the year. Mr. Harvey Watt and Mr. J. H. Spence gave very nice little addresses on matters of importance, which were much enjoyed by the ladies. The report from the Junior Kith and Kin was also read by their president, Miss Daisy Underwood, and a resolution passed to form another Junior Kith and Kin in Eagle Place in the near future, as great many little girls in that locality are desirous of doing their bit. Mrs. J. J. Hurley, District President, and Mrs. Gibbs, president of the Eagle Place Kith and Kin, will call a meeting for the purpose of organizing a new junior kith and kin in the near future.

Large audiences greeted the three performances of "The Prince of Patrons," the delightful little musical comedy, which was put on by local talent under the direction of Mr. Ne Villo of New York, who also took a leading part on Thursday, Friday afternoon and evening at the Grand under the auspices of the Dufferin Chapter, I.O.D.E. The proceeds go to the purchase of comforts for the Canadian soldiers. The principals in the cast are all well known amateur vocalists, who have time and again given their services for patriotic purposes, and they if possible outshone all previous efforts in this, their latest appearance. Miss Hilda Hurley, Miss Gladys Garvin, Miss Helen Cunningham and Miss Kathleen Garrett delighted their audiences with their charming vocal selections, and were repeatedly honored at every performance. Miss Cunningham being the recipient of beautiful flowers on Thursday evening after her song entitled "The Only Way," in which Mr. Elgar Higgins also took a pantomime part very effectively. Miss Hilda Hurley and Miss Cunningham also sang a duet very delightfully, as did Miss Garvin and Miss Cunningham. The comedians of the evening were especially worthy of notice and evoked peals of merriment from their audiences, the antics of Ginger, the colored man, being most spontaneous and original. Mr. William Johnson proving a decided addition to Brantford's talent amateurs, this being his first appearance in theatricals in this city. Mr. Arthur Harp as the King had a somewhat grotesque part, but unfortunately had no opportunity to use his splendid voice, which always delighted his audiences in former productions. Mr. Elgar Higgins gave a clever interpretation of a "stily as Englishman," which occasioned much laughter. Mr. Higgins also made his first appearance in theatricals and is undoubtedly a very realistic portrayal, also singing an Irish song, entitled, "Ireland Must be Free." Mr. Whitaker gave an excellent imitation of the Irish brogue throughout. Miss Vera Hodges, Miss Mary Irwin and Miss Alice Brooks all gave clever portrayals of their parts. Miss Alice Brooks dancing in a charming Oriental costume with tambourine. The beauty chorus of charming young girls brought forth many remarks of appreciation from their audiences. The costumes were most effective and of great variety, one of the most noticeable points being their evident freshness, quite a contrast to the stage worn gowns of the professional choruses. The patriotic tableau of the allies, France, U.S.A. and Canada, was a most artistic finishing touch to a very enjoyable production. Miss Lillian Montgomery, Miss Helen Carpenter and Miss Hilda Hurley looking very handsome in their Irish-draped costumes. The music throughout was supplied by the Beatty Orchestra, Miss Garrett at the piano.

Although it has been the policy of the Spanish Government, for some time past, in regard to Morocco, to prevent any news of conditions in the Rif from finding a plausible way to the press, it has been impossible to prevent news as to the true state of affairs in the Spanish zone from leaking out. For a considerable time, Spain has been somewhat more reticent about these affairs. Again and again confidence has been restored by the announcement of some wonderful settlement and the immediate withdrawal of the troops. But these promises, somehow, have never materialized. They have, indeed, been almost invariably followed, after a long and exasperating absence, by new gobs of trouble. The Spanish attitude during the last few months, has not been, to say the least of it, impressive, but the Allies cannot afford to neglect the Spanish zone in Morocco. Ever since the kind of rallying ground for German propaganda in Spain, and for the hatching of plots against French authority in the north, has been the province of Dangeled, however, those promoting these enterprises are less and less apt to conceal their tracks. Recently, matters have reached a point that Spain has virtually surrendered her sovereign authority and has resorted to that last refuge of the politically destitute, namely, buying her enemies off. The Spanish zone, indeed, Spanish authority in the Rif has been entirely at the mercy of the notorious brigand Raisuli, to whom Spain has been paying a handsome fee of 100,000 pesetas a month in order to make sure that Raisuli's influence with the unruly elements of the country should be cast on the side of the Spanish authorities. The payment of Dangeled, however, never has succeeded, from the days of the Saxon king Ethelred the Unready, and long before his day, down to the present time. An Ethelred found out, the Danes came back for more, and the more they were paid the more surely did they return. So it is with Raisuli. With a fine contempt for all agreements, he was found, some time ago, openly plotting with Germany, receiving large sums in German gold to further German interests, and in quite open correspondence with the German consul at Tetuan. Spain was literally forced to make some show of taking action, and the action she took was to stop payment to Raisuli under any circumstances, which way. Raisuli, however, has evidently no intention of submitting to any such indignity, and his latest word to Spain is that if she does not pay him his arrears, he will make war on her. At the same time he intimates his intention of getting himself appointed Grand Vizier of Tetuan. There the matter rests at the present time. It is a sorry picture, as far as Spain is concerned, of political ineptitude.

Here is Sorry Tale of Political Ineptitude. Although it has been the policy of the Spanish Government, for some time past, in regard to Morocco, to prevent any news of conditions in the Rif from finding a plausible way to the press, it has been impossible to prevent news as to the true state of affairs in the Spanish zone from leaking out. For a considerable time, Spain has been somewhat more reticent about these affairs. Again and again confidence has been restored by the announcement of some wonderful settlement and the immediate withdrawal of the troops. But these promises, somehow, have never materialized. They have, indeed, been almost invariably followed, after a long and exasperating absence, by new gobs of trouble. The Spanish attitude during the last few months, has not been, to say the least of it, impressive, but the Allies cannot afford to neglect the Spanish zone in Morocco. Ever since the kind of rallying ground for German propaganda in Spain, and for the hatching of plots against French authority in the north, has been the province of Dangeled, however, those promoting these enterprises are less and less apt to conceal their tracks. Recently, matters have reached a point that Spain has virtually surrendered her sovereign authority and has resorted to that last refuge of the politically destitute, namely, buying her enemies off. The Spanish zone, indeed, Spanish authority in the Rif has been entirely at the mercy of the notorious brigand Raisuli, to whom Spain has been paying a handsome fee of 100,000 pesetas a month in order to make sure that Raisuli's influence with the unruly elements of the country should be cast on the side of the Spanish authorities. The payment of Dangeled, however, never has succeeded, from the days of the Saxon king Ethelred the Unready, and long before his day, down to the present time. An Ethelred found out, the Danes came back for more, and the more they were paid the more surely did they return. So it is with Raisuli. With a fine contempt for all agreements, he was found, some time ago, openly plotting with Germany, receiving large sums in German gold to further German interests, and in quite open correspondence with the German consul at Tetuan. Spain was literally forced to make some show of taking action, and the action she took was to stop payment to Raisuli under any circumstances, which way. Raisuli, however, has evidently no intention of submitting to any such indignity, and his latest word to Spain is that if she does not pay him his arrears, he will make war on her. At the same time he intimates his intention of getting himself appointed Grand Vizier of Tetuan. There the matter rests at the present time. It is a sorry picture, as far as Spain is concerned, of political ineptitude.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

APPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

BY REV. F. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Copyright, 1918, Western Newspaper Union.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 6 ABRAM LEAVING HOME.

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 11:1-9. GOLDEN TEXT—Be thou a blessing—Genesis 12:2. DEVOTIONAL READING—Hebrews 11:1-10. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL FOR TEACHERS—Genesis 11:1-9; Hebrews 11:1-10.

1. Abraham's Call (v. 1). The new era began with Noah at his head ended in colossal failure. In view of such failure God turned aside from the nation as such, and called Abram out from his kindred and land, and placed him at the head of a new nation which he would train for himself. This call involved: 1. A call to separation. He was to leave the place of his fond associations for a land unknown to him. Obedience to this command meant the severance of three ties. (1) "His country in the widest range of his affections. (2) His place of birth and kindred, which comes closer to his heart. (3) His father's house, as the innocent circle of all tender emotions." All this must be cast off before the Lord could get him into the place of blessing. When kindred and possessions stand in the way of love and service to Christ, one must renounce them (Matthew 10:37). 2. A call to heroic tasks. For Abram to go into a strange land and take possession of it for God called for the heroic in him. It costs much to live the life of separation, but it is the only way to have God's favor. Those who are children of faithful Abram must trust God. 3. God's Promise to Abram (vv. 2-3). God's demand for separation was followed by a seven-fold promise—a gracious engagement on the part of God to communicate certain unmerited favors and to confer blessings upon him. "I will make of thee a great nation; I will bless thee, and thou shalt be blessed." This in some measure compensated for the loss of his country. He escaped from the defiling influences of his own nation, and became the head of a chosen nation, and was fulfilled in a natural way in the Jewish nation and in Ishmael (Gen. 17:20), and in a spiritual seed embracing both Jews and Gentiles (Galatians 3:7-9). "I will bless thee" (v. 2). This was fulfilled (1) Temporally (Gen. 13:14-17, 24-25). He was enriched with lands and cattle, silver and gold. (2) Spiritually (Gen. 21:8; John 8:56). He was freely justified on the grounds of his faith. The righteousness of Christ was imputed to him, and he was blessed. 3. "And make thy name great" (v. 2). He renounced his father's house, and became the head of a new house which would be venerated far and wide. He is known as the friend of God (James 2:23). 4. "Thou shalt be a blessing" (v. 2). It was a great thing to be thus honored and blessed by God, but to be the medium of blessings to others was greater still. It is more blessed to give than to receive. 5. "I will bless thee that bless thee" (v. 3). God so identified himself with his servant that he regarded treatment of Abram as treatment of himself. Few years, especially during the last few years, has not been, to say the least of it, impressive, but the Allies cannot afford to neglect the Spanish zone in Morocco. Ever since the kind of rallying ground for German propaganda in Spain, and for the hatching of plots against French authority in the north, has been the province of Dangeled, however, those promoting these enterprises are less and less apt to conceal their tracks. Recently, matters have reached a point that Spain has virtually surrendered her sovereign authority and has resorted to that last refuge of the politically destitute, namely, buying her enemies off. The Spanish zone, indeed, Spanish authority in the Rif has been entirely at the mercy of the notorious brigand Raisuli, to whom Spain has been paying a handsome fee of 100,000 pesetas a month in order to make sure that Raisuli's influence with the unruly elements of the country should be cast on the side of the Spanish authorities. The payment of Dangeled, however, never has succeeded, from the days of the Saxon king Ethelred the Unready, and long before his day, down to the present time. An Ethelred found out, the Danes came back for more, and the more they were paid the more surely did they return. So it is with Raisuli. With a fine contempt for all agreements, he was found, some time ago, openly plotting with Germany, receiving large sums in German gold to further German interests, and in quite open correspondence with the German consul at Tetuan. Spain was literally forced to make some show of taking action, and the action she took was to stop payment to Raisuli under any circumstances, which way. Raisuli, however, has evidently no intention of submitting to any such indignity, and his latest word to Spain is that if she does not pay him his arrears, he will make war on her. At the same time he intimates his intention of getting himself appointed Grand Vizier of Tetuan. There the matter rests at the present time. It is a sorry picture, as far as Spain is concerned, of political ineptitude.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

Who has deceived thee so often as thyself? I am glad to see that every man in the army is to have a testament. Its teachings will fortify us for our task. —Pershing.

News of the Churches

ANGELICAN. Rev. C. E. Jenkins, Rector Oct. 5. 11th. Sunday after Trinity. 11 a.m. Holy Communion and sermon. The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad. Psalm 124.3. Special service of Thanksgiving for recent victories. 3 p.m. Sunday School and Bible class. 4 p.m. Holy Baptism. 7 p.m. Memorial service for our fallen heroes. Herbert Noble, Harry Raue, Stanley Stuart, Chas. Severs, Geo. A. Howe and H. J. Stiles. The Rector will preach at all services. Strangers made welcome.

Baptist. CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH. Dalhousie St., opposite Alexandra Park. Rev. H. J. McLaren of Jerseyville will (D.V.) preach at both services. Services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday School at 2.45 p.m. Continuation and reception of new members at the close of the morning service. Baptism at the close of the evening service. Seats free.

PRESBYTERIAN. ALEXANDRA PRESBYTERIAN CH. Rev. Chas. S. Oke, Minister. 11 a.m., Subject, "The Judgment." 3 p.m., S. and Bible Classes. 7 p.m., Subject, "A Great Invitation." Morning Anthem, "Even Me." Evening Anthem, "Just As I Am." Male Quartette. Male Chorus, "Stand Up For Jesus." C. J. W. Taylor, Organist and Choir Leader. Everybody Welcome.

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. Rev. James Gordon, B. D., minister. 11 a.m. Religious Course. 3 p.m. Sunday School. 7 p.m. A great adventure. Music a.m. Anthem: "Oh come let us worship." Duet, Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain p.m. solo Mr. Jones, M. I. Leach, conductor.

NON DENOMINATIONAL. CHRISTADELPHIAN. Sunday School and Bible Class, 3 p.m. Lecture, 7 p.m., subject, "Armageddon." Speaker, Mr. H. W. Styles, in C.O.F. Hall, 136 Dalhousie street. All welcome. Seats free. No collection.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST. 44 George Street. Services Sunday, 11 a.m. Wednesday, 8 p.m. Reading room open every day except Sunday, 2.30 to 4.30 p.m. Subject, Sunday, October 6th: "Unreality."

ST. MATTHEW'S LUTHERAN CH. Corner Queen and Wellington. Rev. A. A. Zinck, pastor, 30 Macure Ave. 10 a.m., Sunday School. 11 a.m., The Son of Man hath power on earth to forgive sins. 7 p.m. The Message to the Church at Ephesus. All are welcome.

METHODIST. BRANT AVENUE METHODIST CH. 10.00 a.m., Brotherhood. 11.00 a.m., Rev. E. J. Adams of Collingwood will preach. 2.45 p.m., Sunday School. 7.00 p.m., Rev. D. Fitzpatrick, Music—Solo, selected; anthem, "Still, Still With Thee." Speaks, Soloist, Miss Hilda Hurley. Evening at 7—Special Song of Praise Service, popular hymns and tunes. Hear Mr. Fitzpatrick speak on Lead Kindly Light. Special anthems by the choir, violin numbers by Miss Marjorie Jones. Soloist by Miss Gladys Garvin. Organ Music by Mr. Clifford Higgin. Organist and Choirmaster, Mr. Clifford Higgin.

WELLINGTON ST. METHODIST. Rev. Dr. Geo. W. Henderson, Pastor, 10 a.m., Class meeting. 11 a.m., Public service. Rev. J. Shroyer, D. D., of Port Hope, will preach. Anthem, "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem." (Maunder) Soloist Mr. J. W. Stubbins violin Solo, "Ave Maria" (Gounod) Mr. Robt. Cowan of London. 2.45 p.m., Sunday School. Special program, 7 p.m., public service. Rev. Dr. Shroyer will preach. Anthem, "There was the wild willow" (Tortius Noble) and "Gloria" (Mouart). The choir will be assisted by a string quartette: Ist violin Mr. W. G. Darwin; 2nd, Peoples Evangelistic Song Service! YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASS. HALL. Sunday Night, After Church, 8.30 p.m. Speaker: REV. ROBERT WHITE, Pastor of the Park Baptist Church. Subject: THE IMPERATIVE DECISION. J. H. FRIEND, Leader of Song. The Wesley Quartette Will Sing. Everybody—Men and Women, Invited. COME. COME EARLY. BRING YOUR FRIENDS.

Park BAPTIST Church. Corner George and Darling Streets, Opp. Victoria Park. Sunday Services at 11.00 a.m. and 7.00 p.m. The pastor, Rev. Robert White, will preach at both services. 11.00 a.m. "God the Creator." Solo: Miss Bertha Sayles Bible School: The Bible classes are at 3.00 o'clock. 7.00 p.m. "God's Affection for Man." Solo: Mrs. George Chamberlain. Mrs. C. H. Cromar, organist at both services.

First BAPTIST Church. West Street. Rev. David Alexander (acting pastor) will preach both services. "The Christian Lovefeast" (Communion Service). Anthem, "Book of Ages," Book Solo, "There is a lone hill and grey," Harkness Solo, Mrs. Secord. Bible School, 3 p.m. 7 p.m., Special Song Service. "Stainers, A Daughter of Jairus." "Spoiling a Funeral." Large choir and soloists. Don't miss this service. Everybody welcome. Come.

REVISION IS NECESSARY. By Courier Leased Wire. Berna, Oct. 5.—Baron Burián, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister has declared to the deputies of the German Nationalist group that the internal condition of Austria demanded a revision of the constitution, according to Nouvelle Presse Libre. The fundamental terms of the revised constitution, he declared, should be an agreement between the various Austrian nationalities. Thus far the newspaper adds, the Czechs and Jugoslavians have refused to collaborate in the proposal to revise the constitution.

DROP IN PRICE Tungsten Lamps. 25 and 40 watt ..... 40c 60 watt ..... 45c 100 watt ..... 90c BUY NOW WHILE THE BUYING'S GOOD.

T. J. Minnes. Phone 301 9 King St.

AUCTION SALE Pursell's Auction Room Monday Night at 7.30 Clearing All Lines of New and Second-Hand Furniture. Must be Sold Regardless of Cost. W. BRAGG, Auctioneer.

MAGARA BRAND Unfermented Grape Juice. Concord—Red. Catawba—White. IN CASES. 1 Dozen Quarts. 2 Dozen Pints. We have taken the Brantford Agency for this choice Grape Juice. Ask your Grocer or Restaurant for it. J. S. HAMILTON & Company. 44-46 Dalhousie St. BRANTFORD.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA. CHILDREN'S CASTORIA FOR FLETCHER'S.

Mr. Mandel me Ruth was of Brian's discussed though she "He was think he wonder who ter he had said that sh It was all southern to raised. The personality ther had sh compared a to be reced her mis surely wou had he be seemed to "I must have to ma guess. Ba not discuss anyone." Again th Brian wou she were do the wo have to live ed her mis immediately not surren stand, she operation, they would in her way. Ruth had building is to most m tact, and of tent and sat one of this his own ha and unlove

The First Congregational Church. Corner George and Wellington. Rev. W. J. Thompson, Minister. SPECIAL NOTICE! This church has been thoroughly renovated and Reopening Services will be held on Sunday, Oct. 6th at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Special preacher, Rev. E. B. Braithwaite, Ph. D., President of Western University, London, Ont. Be sure you hear him. A beautiful church. A special preacher. Come! An efficient choir. Mrs. Sanderson, Organist. Sunday School, 3 p.m., Mr. J. L. Dixon, Supt. Large Adult Bible Class, Mr. H. F. Hoag, Teacher. Morning. Anthem, "O God Our Help in Ages Past"..... Maunder Solo, "O Great and Glorious Vision"..... Spross Mrs. Britten. Anthem, "Fear Not, O Israel"..... Spicker Evening. Anthem, "Behold the Praise"..... White Duet, "The Master Touched My Heart Strings"—Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Sanderson. Anthem, "Saviour Breathe an Evening Blessing"..... Havens

Sure Re Eye te headaches by proper if you eyes, you eye, you wity of fitte you ne Our best rest impaired correctly, you shou both lens necessary. Harve 8 50 Open T

Remo all stain paint, Snap num w sinks, p Regul Spe 2 H. E. Druggist, Print Fin

SA to L