A SHOPPER'S HARVEST HO

Monday, Oct. 19.— Quite a large crowd drove from here to Lake Eloida to attend a party at Albert Greenham's. They all report a splendid time. Mrs. Martha Elliott, an old lady October is the supply month for household and personal aged 76 years, walked 23 miles in 3 of needs, and O'Donaghue Bros.' was never so pre-eminently the supply-house for prudent buyers.

Our Prices are not easily matched in any store, as we are determined to make the last three months of 1896 just double 1895, and you are the gainers. For instance :-

Ever used Madame Roy's Complexion Soap? You'd think you were using a 25c soap if you didn't know they were only 10c per box here. Old Brown Windsor 2c, and other standard makes of Toilet and Laundry soaps at the control of the cont away less than par.

Dress Goods.

The essential part of any store is Dress Goods. You can judge the merits of a stock safely by this stock. We aim to always have a complete range of dress goods for mourning, street, evening, or house wear. Knowing buyers are surprised at the 200 25c, 37½c, 50c, and 75c lines.

Mantles and Millinery. When this ad. reaches you, we will have opened the third shipment of those New York Mantles. The genuine boon of being able to get coats that fit, that are well made and finished, at $4.25, at $5.00, at $7.50, at $9.00 is making it nigh impossible to keep our stock equal to the denand. Then you can order any coat in any style if we can't suit you from the stock. MILLINERY ARTISTS have a
