5,000 FACTS ABOUT CANADA

"Know Canada! make Canada known!" is a striking sentence in the War Year edition for 1915 of that popular booklet "5,000 Facts About Canada," compiled by Frank Yeigh, of Toronto, who knows Canada as probably few Canadians do. It is true that he who would know Canada and its wonderful growth in any one year will find this annual publication "worth its weight in Yukon gold or Cobalt silver," while as a means of making the Dominion known in other countries, is no less valuable. Fifty chapters are devoted to such subjects as Agriculture, Area, Banking, Census, Immigration, Mining, Manufacturing, Trade, etc., and a page of Canadian War Facts show how up-to-date it is. Sketch Maps are included of the Dominion in 1867 and 1915. Copies may be had from progressive news-dealers, or by sending 25c to the Canadian Facts Publishing Co., 588 Huron Street, Toronto, Canada.

FODEY-LEEDER

Feb. 2—St. James' Church, Trevelyan, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Jan. 26th, when Anna Letitia, third daughter of Mrs K. Leeder, was united in marriage to Charles E. Fodey, son of Mrs M. Fodey, Outlet. The ceremony was performed by Rev Father Cullinane with a nuptial mass.

The bride attired in a dainty gown of white silk trimmed with shadow lace, wore a white plush hat. Miss Genevieve Leeder, sister of the bride was bridesmaid. She wore a pink silk with chiffon trimming, and a black hat. The groom was assisted by his brother, Andrew Fodey. Miss Mamie Leeder, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome muff, to the bridesmaid a gold pendant with amethyst and pearl settings, and to the groomsmen a pair of gold cuff links. The groomsmen's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold brooch set with pearls and amethysts. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride, where breakfast was served. Then, amid showers of rice, they left for Brockville. Mr and Mrs Fodey left on the afternoon train for Ottawa and other eastern points. Upon returning they will reside in Lansdowne.—Kingston Whig.
