

Re-Opening of League.

The Epworth League re-opened for the season on Monday evening of last week.

Fish for the Rideau.

A fish car containing 100,000 black bass fingerlings arrived last week at Portland and were deposited in the Rideau Lake. The fish were procured from the Department of Game and Fisheries by the Rideau Lakes Protective and Aquatic Association. They will be a splendid addition to the lake.

Captured Escaped Inmate.

One morning recently, Reeve Holmes was notified that a stranger of peculiar demeanor had arrived at the blacksmith shop of Mr. Percy Whitmore, Main street west. After interviewing the visitor, Mr. Holmes telephoned Dr. Mitchell at the Eastern Hospital who stated that no patient was missing from that institution. The authorities at Rockwood Asylum were then called up, and it was found that one Henry Margin was missing and the description given corresponded with that of the recent arrival. He was accordingly detained here until a Kingston officer arrived and took the patient to the Limestone City.

Gets Captaincy on Battlefield.

The Winnipeg Telegram says: "Captain W. W. Kennedy was commissioned major in Lieut.-Col. Lightfoot's Battalion, the 222nd, in Winnipeg. When that unit was broken up in England, he reverted to the ranks to go to France. Word has just been received that he has gained a captaincy on the field. Captain Kennedy was at one time connected with the Telegram. He is a lawyer and a partner in the firm of Kennedy & Kennedy."

Captain Kennedy is well known in Athens and his many friends will be pleased to hear of his promotion.
