A MATCH TRICK.

Good Many People in England Are Puzzled Over It.

HERE is a match trick which just now is puzzling a good many people in England. "A" says to "B": Here are twenty-five matches. Now let each of us take away, in rotation, not more than three at a time. You may begin. Whoever gets the last match loses.

"All right," says "B," I'll begin."

"And now they take them away as follows:

"A".....1 3 2 3 3 2
"B".....3 1 2 1 1 2

This makes twenty-four, and "B" loses. "A" simply operates so that as soon as possible the number of matches from which "B" has to take shows one in addition to a multiple of four, and from then on again takes away a number, which, added to those taken by "B," makes four. Of course, the total number of matches is not restricted to twenty-five. It may be 29, 37, 101, etc., but must always be one in excess of a multiple of four.

"A" begins:

[How to Cure a Corn]

It is one of the easiest things in the world to cure a corn. Do not use acids or other caustic preparations and don't cut a hole in your foot. It is simply to apply Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor and in three days the corn can be removed without pain. Sure, safe, painless. Take only Putnam's Corn Extractor.

Mrs. Fijit—Why doesn't Mr. Smith come to our house any more?

Mr. Fijit—I can't imagine. I'm sure I always tried to entertain him by the smart things our baby does, too.

"Cleanliness is next to godliness." Dirt and depravity go hand in hand. This is just as true of the inside of the body as the outside. Constipation clogs the system and clouds the mind. Constipation means that corruption is breeding in the body, poisoning the blood with its foul emanations, befogging the brain with its tainted exhalations. Constipation is the beginning of more diseases than, perhaps, any other single disorder.

The consequences of constipation are legion. Headache, pain in the side, shortness of breath, undue fullness, dizziness, sallowness, tremor, nervousness, indecision, lassitude, and a score of other ailments are directly caused by constipation. Cure constipation and you cure its consequences. The quickest cure of the evil is obtained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

These are small in size but wonderful in result. They cure permanently. They contain no injurious ingredients. The use of them does not beget the "pill habit."

Ask your druggist for them. Send 31 one-cent stamps, the expense of mailing and customs, and receive Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, 700 illustrations. For 50 stamps it can be had in substantial cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

Jack—Because that's where I got it.

Catarrh Easily and Quickly Cured

Poor remedies have given Catarrh the reputation of being incurable. If it is curable, ease can be quickly, if the right method is employed. Snuffing an irritating powder or ointment up the nose, won't cure Catarrh, neither will tablets, douching or treatments of any kind. These are not far reaching cures. They only affect local conditions, but do not remove the cause, which is germ life established deep down in the lungs, bronchial tubes and nasal passages. Ordinary remedies do not reach these remote parts, but Catarrh does for it is breathed through the inhaled air into every air cell in the lungs, and throat. No matter where the Catarrh is, Catarrh reaches it. It kills the germs, heals sore spots, clears the nose and throat instantly. Universally used to cure or money refunded. Try Catarrh, 25 cents and $1.00. Druggists, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Toothache Cured in One Minute

Not only toothache, but any nerve pain is cured instantly by Polson's Nerviline. The powerful, penetrating, pain-subduing properties make it an absolute cure for neuralgia, rheumatism, toothache, cramps, colic, and all other pains and aches that beset mankind. The world is challenged to equal Nerviline as a household liniment. Large bottle 25 cents.

First Doctor—I don't think it absolutely necessary to operate.

Second doctor—But I told them that it was.

"Oh, well, then, as a matter of professional courtesy, I, of course, shall stand by what you said."

AN NEW SILK HAT

The Boys Got Up a Little Plot to Have

The young man who prides himself upon his swell and dapper appearance had just bought a new silk hat, and it had been sent to the office from the hat store. It arrived while he was at luncheon, and one of the boys reported for it, and after the messenger was gone he looked out the prize for general inspection. It was certainly a beauty, but the hat was not so good as a silk hat that never sees any sense in any other person wearing one. So the gang got up a little plot to have a little fun with the sports purchaser.

The new hat was stored away in the clothes closet, and the office boy was sent to the County Democracy headquarters to borrow the worst old plug hat that could be found in the room.

One that had been through all the parades for years and had been kicked from pillar to post. The boy got it all right, and it was carefully stowed in the hat box and placed on the sports purchaser's desk.

He came bursting in soon afterward and jumped toward the package.

"Oh, my new hat came, did it?" he asked, beginning to unwrap the package.

"Well, say, you fellows can't kid a silk hat all you want to, but here's one that's a—"

He got that far before he opened the box and took out the ancient plug hat, which he looked at with a regret. Then he made some remarks which are unfit for publication.

"I'll show 'em," he shouted, while the crowd kept up a chorus of laughter to indicate that he was kidding.

He was playing jokes on him, and he jammed the old hat back in the box preparatory to going back to the store with it.

He was again, and one of the boys called him into the private office a moment on something very imperative, while another shifted the hats and put the new one back in the box.

Burning from the momentary conference, the indignant young man tied up the hat box and stamped away to the hat store.

"Where you mean," he demanded, slamming the box down and nervously pulling at the string. By sending me an old wreck of a hat like this—"

He pulled out the shining new tile he had bought a few hours before.

What the salesman said and thought and what the young man said and realized are not necessary to the story. It ought to end right here.—From the Chicago Chronicle.

A New Copseton.

The heir of the gilded household had just proposed to the pretty school maid. She replied him with a steady glance as she polished off her rounded arms with a coarse towel.

"I must have every Thursday out," she said.

"Yes," he murmured.

"And every Sunday afternoon."

"Yes."

"And every night as soon as the dinner things are done up."

"Yes."

"How many in family?"

"Only you and I."

"Any children?"

"No."

"Much company?"

"Very little."

"Any furnace to tend?"

"No."

"Hired man to do all the outside work?"

"Yes."

"What make of piano do you use?"

"The Bangway."

"Let me think. Ah, yes. I shall insist upon having the breakfast room set upon having the breakfast room to receive my beaux in."

"Well by thunder, you don't get it!" cried the gilded heir as he turned and stalked away.

So the maid haughtily rolled up her sleeves again and went back to her work.

Proved the Bishop a Lion.

A clergyman desirous of a living went to the Bishop of London and asked him for an introduction to the Bishop Lord Chancellor Thurlow. The Bishop Lord Chancellor Thurlow, who was willing to give up said, "I should be willing to give up, but an introduction from me would defeat the very end you have in view." However, the clergyman persisted in his request and the introduction was given.

The Lord Chancellor received him with fury. "So that awful scoundrel, the Bishop of London, has given you an introduction, as it is he who has introduced you, you will certainly not get the living."

"Well, so the bishop said, my lord," said the clergyman.

"Did the bishop say so?" thundered Lord Thurlow. "Then he's a convicted liar, and I'll prove him so; you shall have the living." And the man got it.

Gentlemen—My neighbor's boy, 4 years old, fell into a tub of boiling water and got scalded fearfully. A few days later his legs swelled to three times their natural size and he broke out in running sores. His parents could get nothing to help him till I recommended MINARD'S LINIMENT, which, after using two bottles, completely cured him, and I know of several cases around here all cured by the same Liniment, and I can truly say I never handled a medicine which has had as good a sale or given such universal satisfaction.

Come to the surface in the spring as in no other season. It's a pity they don't run themselves all off that way, but in spite of pimples and other eruptions, they mostly remain in the system. That's bad.
