The Budget Debate. Mr. G. G. King's Speech.

Mr. King-Mr. Speaker, I have listened the export of this article increased to articles that they consume, is to be my seat I wish to allude a moment to two with a good deal of attention to the speech delivered by the hon, member for Kings delivered by the hon, member for Kings exported in 1879. Then, Sir, in eggs we sary in the duties which are imposed on deform the Finance Department during (Mr. Foster), and I must confess I have find that 579,432,003 were exported in these articles that are produced by the the past year. Everybody on the floor probably been as much disappointed 1879, realizing $66,249, at an average of farmers of the country. What are the with that speech as with any speech to 11 cents a doz-n, while in 1882 our farmers of the country. What are the facts? The hon, gentleman to night has mers in New Brunswick exported 727.616 alluded to struggling industries which the property is other. House. I have had the pleasure, in other places, and on other occasions of listening of 17 cents a dozen, and this in face of want to know if the farming industry of storm would sweep over the continent in to the hon, member for Kings. I have been pleased while listening to his reed home market, as hon, gentlemen sufficient quantity of pork to supply the

It must be patent to the House that the hon. gentleman has simply read the Budget Speeches of the finance Minister, with, perhaps, a few extracts thrown in from speeches by the hon. member for Lincoln. In the hon. gentleman's opening remarks he alon, gentleman's opening remarks he alsenting, than has the National Policy; he might have stated, in all fairness, that luded to our prosperity existing at the present time in the different Provinces tleman were now in his place, I would due to the obligations imposed upon his which go to make up this Dominion. challenge him to show that any more Government by the Government which

It is but our hopes in that respect have good prices in foreign markets for its policy. feetly right for the hon. member to deal Now, it would be supposed that the been dispelled, for the hon. Finance exports of lumber, he might claim that with the question from that standpoint largely increased home market which and in the manner in which he did deal was to be created by the National Policy, perpetual, that it is to last as long as would be prosperous; but I think he with it; but to night it must be plain to every hon, gentleman who has listened to the speech just delivered that the hon.

which go to make up this Dominion. But there was one thing which I remarked particularly, that while' the hon. gentleman thought it worth while to mame Nova Scotia, Quebec, Ontario, British Columbia, Manitoba and Prince Edward Island, he omitted to name the Province of which he is a representative in this shoe factory, which was then, I think, in a flourishing condition. Sir. I am sorry to the introduction of the National Policy in the town of Sussex, which is the principal town in his county, they had a shoe factory, which was then, I think, in a flourishing condition. Sir. I am sorry to the introduction of the National Policy in the town of Sussex, which is the principal town in his county, they had a shoe factory, which was then, I think, in a flourishing condition. Sir. I am sorry to the introduction of the National Policy in the town of Sussex, which is the principal town in his county, they had a shoe factory, which was then, I think, in a flourishing condition. Sir. I am sorry to the Government by the Government which preceded them. I was much amused with another idea of the hon. gentleman, and that was, that an increase of the Kings County, P. E. I. case was further to bring that point home to him in a homely way, but in a way which, if he could not understand, many of his constituents the committee considered on Mr. McCarthy's motion declaring that Mr. MacDonald, the could have been returned. Mr. Davies addressed not understand, many of his constituents House. I make no apology to-night for a flourishing condition. Sir, I am sorry to not understand, many of his constituents the committee, contending that no circumstance of the committee of House. I make no apology to might for any remarks I may make on this subject in dealing with it from the standpoint of my own Province; that has been my custom in years past when speaking on this question, and I intend to follow the same line to-night. I think I am justified, more fully in taking the course I now propose to adopt, on account of the propose to adopt, on account of the action of the hon. member for Kings, who represents the county adjoining my the stockholders; but I do assert, that there is no more manufacturing done in head. The hon gentleman's county ten the hon gentleman's county ten the hon gentleman's county ten was applied to Prince Edward Island, and with the National Policy and Tariff which bear, perhaps, more heavily upon that before the introduction of the National about 25,000 inhabitants, and I think I Province than upon any other Province Policy. I have not yet come to what I am safe is stating that it has not increased 1872 and extended it to Prince Edward favor by hon gentlemen opposite. I am not to-night prepared—notwithstanding that the hon gentleman ha not alluded the case, it must be admitted that any the case, it must be admitted that any of the province, and not those for carrying the mails is a fair charge of the Dominion, should govern elections. not to-night prepared—notwithstanding that the hon, gentleman ha not alluded to it—to deny that New Brunswick is in a somewhat more prosperous condition than it was some what more prosperous condition than it was some three or four years ago, but I deny that the increased prosperity in that Province is in a large measure due to the National Policy. I should nave liked the hon, gentleman, while admitted that any portion of $150,000. Nor do I think he will claim that any portion of $150,000 well claim that any portion of $ much, which is not much larger than it was heretofore; but taking the article of what was imposed before. The hon, gentions asking for an increase in the tariff on was heretofore; but taking the article of lumber for 1879-80, what de we find?— that the whole of the products of the forest exported from New Brunswick, during that year, amounted to $4,031,000, while, taking the year 1882, the quantity was not largely in excess, but the amount realized was $5,444,000, leaving a clear realized was $5,444,000, leaving a clear that the residence in favor of the Province, on this the inland counties the return is far less tions asking for an increase in the tariff on any of the articles on which the proposed does not mean an increase of taxation; but I think as applied to his county that this is the case—I know it is in mine. It is true that there is a difference in counties along the coast which have been provided with lights and harbors, but in the inland counties the return is far less information asked for in this resolution. Of balance in favor of the Province, on this the inland counties the return is far less information asked for in this resolution. Of article alone, of nearly $1,500,000 in round for the money expended than it was of a private or rather in prospec ive. But no such all other things, has had to do with the lates of the money expended than it was of a private some years ago. The hon. Finance Minimeters and the money expended than it was formation asked for in this resolution. Of course correspondence which was of a private or confidential natures hould not be brought ister in closing his financial statement the down; but there must be a vast amount of allusion was made in the Budget Speech to which we have listened this Session; the only fair inference is that no very great increase has taken place in the manufacturing interests in New Bruns-wick. Since we lust met I am aware a cotton factory has been built at St. Stephen, or rather near the St. Croix, and in that connection I may say that, sitting on my right is a pronounced opponent of the Government of the Government of the Government of the Government of the decision of a Judge. The counts will set let the decision of a Judge. The counts will settle the question, and one who was strenuously which has most certainly gone into the down; but there must be a vast amount of other night, said he had been taunted that year with not having a following from that which was not of that character. "Gowing, as I do," he continued, "from a time of depression, and compare the exclaim a majority. Perhaps the hon. gentleman can, as things stand at present, claim a majority, but he owes that not to late the votes of the electors of Albert Country, but to the decision of a Judge.
