MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Good cattle were scarce and high priced, prime beefs selling at from 6 to over 6 1/2¢ per lb. and not choice at that; pretty good cattle sold at 4 to 5¢; common stock at 3 to 4¢ per pound. COBALT STOCKS.
Business on the mining exchanges was dull and heavy, the most active stocks being Beaver and Nova Scotia. The movement of the latter stock was decidedly downward, which fact was explained by some report that the company is preparing to issue new stock for reorganization purposes. Others said that the decline was due to the investigation now being made by the directors of Patterson Lake into the relationships between the two companies. Brokers close to the directorate, however, said that it was purely a bear raid. On the Toronto Stock Exchange La Rose advanced from $7.94 to $7.98.

Of failures this week in the United States 62 were in the East, 75 in the South, 70 West and 23 in the Pacific States, and 83 report liabilities of $5,000 or more against 78 last week. Liabilities of commercial failures reported thus far for June are $7,012,818 against $6,919,561 the same period last year.

DISASTROUS FIRE.
Scranton, Pa., June 22.—The building of the Laurel Cut Glass Co. at Jeremiahs, near here, were destroyed by fire to-day, along with much finished stock. The loss is estimated at $80,000. One hundred persons are thrown out of employment.

foreign connections. General business continues fairly satisfactory. The efforts of the national government to increase its revenue, while not an important market factor, excite most interest in financial circles. The report of Governor Hughes' Stock Exchange Committee is, upon the whole, a very commendable piece of work. Though not agreeing with every recommendation, I heartily endorse all proposals which tend to raise the standard of the dealings in securities above suspicion. The future of the market is so much involved in uncertainty that we can only advise increased caution in buying.—Henry Clews.

believe she was in love with him. While she was writing passionate letters to "My Darling William" (Leung's American name), and signing herself "Yours, with many kisses, Elsie," she kept up a pretty affectionate correspondence with Chu. She was so sorry that "dear Chu had been sick," and hoped he "would be better the next time she came down."

Also, the detectives gathered in Sun Leung, proprietor of the chop-see house at No. 782 Eighth avenue, who rented rooms to Leung Lim and Chung Sui, and who had not been back since the night the girl's corpse was found, and who had slipped down to Chinatown to find his cousin. There are a lot of things the police want to screw from Mr. Sun concerning his cousin and the uses to which the rooms over his chop-see house had been put before Elsie Sigel was killed there.

DANGER TO GIRL TEACHERS.

Declaring that the system of missions in Chinatown in having American girls teach Chinese men is directly responsible for the death of Elsie Sigel, whose body was found Friday in the room of William Leon, Miss Helen F. Clark, Director of the Mission F. Clark Mission, at No. 195 West street, one of the leading missionaries in Chinatown, New York, yesterday denounced the plan as a source of moral corruption both to the Chinese and to many of the young women who teach them. Miss Clark has been known in New York and other parts of the country for many years for her intemperate and reckless conduct among the Chinese.

"Imagine our young women's Christian Association fitted out with a corps of young and for the most part attractive girls as teachers," said she, "with a teacher to each pupil for the purpose of teaching some special subject like English. Imagine such a daily and intimate association such as this, and you will lead to going on for month after month and even year after year; and imagine the reputation the association would have in a short time under those conditions. The case in our Chinese missions, where their large majority of women teachers, is similar except that it is rendered infinitely worse and more dangerous on account of the traditional idea of a hundred generations old, held by the Chinese regarding women."

"In China any social intercourse between the sexes is a thing unheard of. Take a young Chinese man and woman throw him into daily and intimate contact with an attractive American girl, and consider the effect, as I have done to my sorrow for many years. The Chinese reverence learning, and in the point of education most of them are mere children. And the girls, as soon as the first shock of being allowed to so much as speak to a woman is over, they are awakened to another conception of women, and they almost fall down and worship those girls as super-beings. Then follow the apparently harmless flirtation, the jilting of the man, or the possible lowering of his conception of American women by some indiscretion on the part of the girl, or, as happens in more cases than I care to think of, some terrible tragedy, of which the death of Elsie Sigel is an example."

MURDERED GIRL BURIED.

The body of the murdered girl was quietly buried this afternoon in Woodlawn Cemetery. As the father had announced last night that he wished to avoid any more publicity, the coffin containing the mutilated form was taken directly from the morgue to the burying ground in a plain undertaking wagon. The ceremony at the grave was strictly private and was attended only by the father, two brothers, Reginald and Theodore, and an uncle, Franz Sigel.

Mrs. Sigel, it will be recalled, broke down completely when she learned of her daughter's death, and is now in a sanitarium. Although the mission in Chinatown, where Elsie Sigel formerly taught, has been closed, a meeting of Chinese who have been converted to Christianity was held in a Doyer street mission this afternoon to discuss plans for raising a fund to be offered as a reward for the capture of Elsie Sigel's slayer. No definite sum was decided upon, but a committee will go through Chinatown to-day soliciting subscriptions. Thirty Chinese, all scholars of various Sunday schools in the district, attended the meeting and the Rev. Fung Y. Mow acted as chairman.

ANOTHER MISTAKE.

Pittsburg, June 22.—The Pittsburg police say they have arrested Leon Ling, the Chinese wanted in New York, in connection with the Sigel murder. The arrest was made by Detective Crooks. Information for the press was refused except a statement from the authorities that they positively have the right man.

KING'S LEVEE.

London, June 22.—Ambassador Reid, accompanied by Craig W. Wadsworth, second secretary of the embassy, was among the large number of diplomats who attended King Edward's levee at St. James' palace to-day. The Ambassador presented to His Majesty a number of Americans.

PRETENDER SICK.

Madrid, June 22.—According to the Imparcial the pretender to the throne, Don Carlos, who is now living in retirement at Varese, Italy, is suffering from cerebral paralysis.

A FOOLISH YOUTH.

Eric, Pa., June 22.—Chas. Ullary, said to be the son of a wealthy undertaker of New York, shot and slightly injured Beatrice Kelly, 18 years old, early to-day, and then committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. He was said Ullary and the Kelly girl had quarreled early last evening.

With the Cricketers

The touring team of the University of Pennsylvania doubled the score exactly in the match here yesterday with the Hamilton Cricket Club. Only three of the local team were able to make any kind of a stand against the collegians' great bowler, Hordern, who took eight wickets for 41 runs. The three Hamiltons who got double figures were Jack Connell, who batted carefully for 30; Gordon Southern, 16, and S. S. Mills, 21. Six of the locals failed to score. Hordern, who is an Australian, and will return to his native land after this tour, was largely what is termed the googly ball, and it was deadly. Stetell, also of Australia, one of the first pair to bat, did brilliant batting,
