PEACE POLICY.

France Wants Peace While Straightening Her Defences.

Mr. Pichon's Statement in Chamber of Deputies.

Paris, Dec. 28. - Replying in the Chan ber of Deputies to M. De Pressenz, who urged a more active foreign policy, M Pichon, Minister of Foreign Affairs, de Dichon, Minister of Foreign Affairs, de-clared that the situation—in Europe, thanks to the policy of en tentes, was better than for years past. He said that France was forced to face stern reali-fies, not ideas. Her object was, while strengthening her detenses, to preserve peace by all means in her power.

M. Pichon reviewed the international crists of the past five years, the Degger Fank affair, the Persan and Turkish revolutions, the situation in Crete and other important matters, which gave rise to anxiety, and pointed out that the rocent agreement with Germany with re-ference to Moroccco had removed—a great source of concern, both to France
