TRADE AND SPADE.

BY CHARLES MACKEY.

Between two friends, in days of old,
A bitter strife began,
As Father spade with Brother Trade
Disputed man to man.

And Trade lost temper in his pride,
He stern'd words of scorn;
You do not know the ways of men,
Amid your sheep and corn.

And thus they wrangled night and day,
Unfit, like angry men,
Till things went wrong between them both,
And would not right again.

And all the people sang for joy,
To see their good accord,
While spade assembled all his sons,
And piled his plowshare board.

Varieties.

ECONOMY IS DUE TO OUR EMPLOYERS.—Waste not, want not, is a good old proverb. He that is faithful in little is faithful also in much. A person who takes no care of the materials committed to his hand by his master, will never duly husband his own property.

REFINED CONVERSATION AT AN EVENING PARTY.—Miss Ryelov.—"You have travelled through foreign countries within the last few years, Mr. Albano, have you not?"

PRACTICAL PHILOSOPHY.—Sontney says in one of his letters—"I have told you of the Spaniard who always put on his spectacles when he was about to eat cherries, that they might look bigger and more tempting. In like manner, I make the most of my enjoyments; and though I do not eat my carous away, I pack them in as little compass as I can, and carry them as conveniently as I can for myself, and never let them annoy others."

DANCING.—"I am now an old fellow," says Cooper in one of his letters, "but I had once my dancing day, as you have now; yet I could never find that I could learn half so much of a woman's character by dancing with her, as conversation with her at home, when I could observe her behaviour at the table, or at the fireside, and in all the trying scenes of domestic life. We sit all good when we are sweet; but she is a good woman who wants not the Adonis to sweeten her."

A few days since, a gentleman near West Point took into his service a valet of the name of the Emerald Isle. On the first day of his service, he was startled by the sound of the evening gun, as it reverberated through the highlands, and the evening the mountain's slumbering echoes, and anxiously inquired of his employer the cause of the explosion, and was told that it was the "sudden gun." "Och, bless me," exclaimed Pat, "and does the gun make such a thunder as that going down in this country?"

Here is a very fair paragraph, which we commenced to the honor of fair play, and the fair in general:—"Buy fair, sell fair, and love fair. By so doing, you will stand a fair chance of having a fair life and a fair funeral. Provided you don't raise the fare, when you own a steambost."

CURES FOR THE UNCURED!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF SCROFULA OR KING'S EVIL. Extract of a Letter from Mr. J. H. Allday, 200, High Street, Cheltenham, dated the 22d of January, 1850. To Professor HOLLOWAY.

Sir,—My eldest son, when about three years of age, was afflicted with a Glanular Swelling in the neck, which after a short time broke out into Ulcers. An eminent medical man pronounced it a very bad case of Scrofula, and prescribed for it a considerable time without effect. The disease then for four years went on gradually increasing in violence, when, besides the ulcer in the neck, another formed below the left ear, and a third under the eye, besides several others on the left arm, with a tumor between the eye which was expected to burst during the month of the time my father had received the constant advice of the most celebrated medical gentlemen at Cheltenham, besides being for several months in the General Hospital, where one of the surgeons said that he would amputate the left arm, but that the blood was so impure, that if that limb were taken off it would be then even impossible to subdue the disease. In this desperate state I determined to give you Pills and Ointment a trial, and after two months' perseverance in their use, the tumor gradually began to disappear, and the discharge from all the ulcers presently decreased, and at the expiration of eight months they were perfectly healed, and the boy thoroughly restored to the enjoyment of health, to the satisfaction of a large circle of spectators, who could testify to the truth of this miraculous cure. Three years have now elapsed without any recurrence of the malady, and the boy is now as healthy as heart can wish. Under these circumstances I consider that I should be truly grateful were you to make me acquainted with this wonderful cure, effected by your medicines after every other means had failed.

(Signed) J. H. ALLDAY. CURE OF ACUTE RHEUMATISM OF FOUR YEARS' STANDING. Extract of a Letter from Mr. John Pitt, Dudley, 19th Jan. 1850. To Professor HOLLOWAY.

Sir,—It is with the greatest pleasure that I write to thank you for the benefit I have received from your Pills and Ointment, which I have used for the last four years, at times I was so bad as hardly to be able to walk. I had tried every kind of medicine that was recommended without receiving any benefit. I at last thought I would give your medicines a trial and purchased from Mr. Rollin, Chemist of this Town, two boxes of Pills and two of Ointment, and in three weeks through them and the blessing of God, I was restored to health and strength, and am now so well able to walk as ever I was in my life. I am well known in this parish, having been sixty-five years in it, with an exception of two years I served in the 24th Regiment of Foot.

(Signed) JOHN PITT. CURE OF A BAD LEG OF MORE THAN SIXTY YEARS' STANDING. Mr. Barker, of No. 5, Graham's Place, Drypool, near Hull, had been so long in the age of eighteen until he was eighty, and although for many years he had sought the best medical aid in the country, nothing was found to cure them. He very often suffered most excruciating pain for long periods together, which incapacitated him from attending to his business. He had given up all hopes of getting a cure when at last he was persuaded to try Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which he did, and however wonderful it may appear, the leg was soon roughly healed by their means, and by continuing to use the Pills alone after his leg was well, he has become in health so hale and hearty as now to be more active than most men of fifty.

N. B.—The return of this extraordinary statement can be vouched for by Mr. J. C. Reinhardt, 22, Market Place, Hull. February 20th, 1850. YEAKE'S STANDING. CURE OF A DESPERATE CASE OF RINGWORM OF SIX YEARS' STANDING. Lind, 12th November, 1848.

One of the most eminent Surgeons in Lima (the Capital of Peru) had a child covered with Ringworm for more than six years; in vain he exhausted all his art in his endeavours to effect a cure. Not succeeding, he consulted among his brethren, the most celebrated medical practitioners of the City, but nothing was found to do the child service. He was then presented by Mr. Joseph F. Hague, the English Chemist and Druggist, residing at 24, Calle de Pichincha, in try Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which was done, and after using it he was radically cured, to the surprise of the whole medical profession. The name of the parent, from motives of delicacy is withheld.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases: Bad Legs, Chloasma, Sore throats, Gut Ulcers, Gout, Chalk-stone, Skin diseases, Burns, Chapped-hands, Glandular Swellings, Sore heads, Corns (Soft), Swellings, Sore heads, Eruptions of Moles, Cancer, Lumbago, Tumours, Itches and Contracted & Fleas, Ulcers, Sand-Flies, Stiff joints, Rheumatism, Wounds, Cocca-Bay, Elephantiasis, Scalds, Yaws, Sore Nipples.

Sold by the Proprietor at 244 Strand (near Temple Bar) London, and by 1240, T. HAZARD, Agent for P. E. Island, in Boston and New York, 22, de, de, and 20c each. There is a very considerable saving in taking the larger size. N. B. Directions for the guidance of Patients are affixed to each Pot.

Dr. EVANS'S PAIN KILLER. NO medicine has been discovered that is so happily adapted to use internally as drops to be taken, and yet perform such wonders when applied externally as a wash, bath, or by friction. USE IT IN THIS MANNER. For common headache, simple bathing will answer. For sudden colds and hard coughs, (to cure immediately) put one teaspoonful in four of molasses, and take three spoonfuls of the mixture as often as you cough. Bathe the neck, breast and sides with it to cure soreness of a cough.

Asthma, Phthisis and sore breasts—for speedy relief, 30 drops in molasses, and bathe freely with it, and keep on foment wet in it. For neural complaint, cholera morbus, cholera and diarrhoea,—teaspoonful in a gill of milk and molasses, well mixed; if the pain is severe, bathe the bowels with it, and in cholera repeat the dose every hour.

For Dyspepsia and sick stomach, 20 to 30 drops in sweetened water, morning, noon and night, till all symptoms yield, and you are restored to perfect health. For all rheumatic complaints, lame neck, swollen face, sore throat and toothache, 60 drops as above, three times a day bathe the parts affected, rub with a warm cloth, and take a teaspoonful of mustard seed nightly, in milk or molasses, at bed time.

For Burns, scalds, and all sores, pricks, stings or old sores, bathe with and often the parts affected. For sudden colds or croup, 30 drops in Molasses, every hour, and bathe freely with it. For canker, sore mouth and stomach, chicken pox, or measles, 30 drops, twice a day in sweet milk.

ASK FOR EVANS'S PAIN KILLER, AND TAKE CARE TO GET THE VOICE FROM NOVA SCOTIA. DOCTOR EVANS'S PAIN KILLER, being fully tested in localities where it has been in general use, I deem it my duty to the public to annex a few of the very Certificates now in my possession, that all may know and be possessed of this VALUABLE REMEDY. C. V. POOR, Druggist, 19, Tremont Row, Boston, Sole Proprietor.

This will certify I was afflicted with severe rheumatic Pain in my leg, proceeding from a severe cold, so much so, I could not walk without the aid of crutches, and by the use of one bottle of Evans's Pain Killer, I, to the surprise of my neighbours, was completely cured. Lunenburg, N. S. J. RILEY, Shoemaker.

This is to certify that I have used Evans's Pain Killer in my family and found it to be an excellent medicine, superior to any of the kind I ever used. FENTON TOMLINSON, Hants County. Wilmet, 3rd January, 1850.—This is to certify I have for some time past sold several of the different kinds of Pain Killer, and have found Evans's, as manufactured by C. V. Poor, Boston, to give more general satisfaction than any in use.

JAMES A. GIBBONS, Merchant. Bridgeton, March 21, 1850.—This is to certify I have for some time past sold several of the different kinds of Pain Killer, and have found Evans's, as manufactured by C. V. Poor, Boston, to give more general satisfaction than any in use.
