The Harry A. Berwind was bound to Philadelphia from Mobile, which port she left September 23. She was sighted early yesterday morning 30 miles off the Cape Fear Bar by Captain Taylor, whose attention was attracted by the reckless manner in which the fill-fated vessel was being steered, her course threatening to run down his own vessel. Captain Taylor and crew boarded the vessel and placed the negroes in irons.

It developes from the stories of the negroes that the mutiny arose as the result of a quarrel aboard ship early Tuesday morning about the coffee made for breakfast. The King was signalled by the Berwind, 30 miles east of Frying Pan lightship, and in response to a signal, Capt Taylor, she the result of Douglas in that year, and rise on board the Berwind.
