It is, perhaps, unnecessary to say that some little time passed before the choir were able to screw their mouths into that serious pucker requisite to the proper performance of the music call exercise.

MORNINGTON AND WELLESLEY.

THESE Townships are at present included in the Wellington District, and held by a very doubtful elaim. By neglect or oversight, the mistake—as it evidently is one—has occurred.
Nor has it been tried to be remedied since, the the extent of the Huron territory was brought before Parliament in 1846. Nor have the Magistrates in Quarter Sessions at Goderich, in their application to the Assembly, claimed the full extent of the right. The following Memoral dum having a reference to the subject, was drawn up in July, 1847, to revive the claim, and is now submitted to the public:

MEMORANDUM—to shew that the Townships of Mornington and Wellesley were reserved to form part of the Huron District. On the 6th of March, 1838, the Act was passed, erecting the Huron District, (Ist Vic. chap. 26). By the 23rd clause, two rights were established, as reserved for this listrict, viz: a range of townships to the north of the Huron District, and the division of the District of Huron (at a fucture time) into two counties. That clause JULY 13, 1847.

But the main design of it is, to induce the elevation of the Mechanical and other working classes to that moral standard in the scale of being which it is the privilege, and should be the ambition, of all to a train. Among the numerous periodicals of the day, there is not one devoted to the moral day, there is not one devoted to the moral improvement of the people, but is chiefly distinguished for its partizan zeal or religious peculiarities. It will be the province of the proposed publication to fill up the vacuum between these two unavoidable extremes by presenting, every week, to the reader's consideration, such expice as will strengthen the intellect, refine the mind, and according to heart of the mind, and according to heart of the mind.

From the quantity and quality of the material the projector has at his disposal independent of any extraneous aid, he feels confident in being able to present to the public such an attractive and valuable compilation as cannot fail to meet with general pproval.
