GOSSIP OF TO-DAY.

Mark Twain, who is on the continent, is engaged in writing a serious novel. It is a well-known historical fact that King Eric of Sweden wanted to marry Queen Elizabeth. It is not so well known that he made a similar proposal to Mary, Queen of Scots. Mary's letter, politely rejecting his offer, was sold in London the other day for about $110.

other day for about $110.

"Singing with one's work not only lightens but sweetens it," observes a magazine philosopher. This must be why that cheerful rascal, the mesquite, is willing to work overtime o' nights, instead of going to sleep with the rest of creation.

The Duchess of Fife is attracting admiration from all England and Scotland by her conduct as a model mother. Following the example of Queen Victoria and the Empress Frederick, she is nursing her own baby, and may frequently be seen walking the streets of Brighton with her baby in her arms.

A law recently made by the authorities

A law recently made by the authorities of Montreal requires that after Aug. 15 the sanitary, factory, tenement, snoke and meat inspectors shall be required to wear a uniform, consisting of a blue blouse with black buttons, blue waistcoat, and blue trousers. The suit will be bound with mohair, and a red Greek cross must be worn on each lapel of the coat.
