NEWFOUNDLAND AFFAIRS.

The Situation Satisfies Frenchmen—Comments by the London Times.

London, March 28.—The Journal Des Debates, of Paris, in an article on the Newfoundland question, expresses satisfaction with the convention recently concluded. It regards the presence of Queen Victoria and Lord Salisbury in France as an excellent symptom of the situation. England, it says, has acted perfectly correct towards France, but has displayed remarkable weakness in dealing with Newfoundland. Commenting on the calls of the British press to suppress the Utreecht treaty, the Journal reminds them that the same treaty gave Gibraltar to England. The Journal says France will relinquish none of her rights.

The Times, commenting on the foregoing, warns France that England does not intend to drag on her colonies, and reminds Newfoundland that foreign opinion asks whether she has any desire to become a French colony.

Petitions Presented. In the Ontario Legislature the other day

In the Ontario Legislature the other day the following petitions were presented:

By Mr. Awrey—From the Tavistock Milling Company and others, against being compelled to employ licensed engineers or portable and stationary engines.

By Mr. Guthrie—From the Mutual Fire Underwriters' Association of Ontario, for the appointment of officers to hold inquests into fires, and also that no insurance company may be compelled to pay losses caused by farm engines placed within 100 feet of the separator.

A Proud Position.

We have traveled not only in 33 States of this country but in Europe as well, and we are giving the New York Central but just praise when we say that in every respect it is a perfect road and anyone going west, either on pleasure or business, who travels via any other simply takes an inferior route. Its splendid roadbed admits of the highest speed with perfect satety. The scenery is most beautiful and richly historic, while its equipment, sleeping cars, drawing-room cars, and dining cars is suberb, and the latter's cuisine is equal to that of the best hotel in America. New England is as well served as New York in the service of the New York Central, as (via the Boston and Albany Railroad) through sleeping cars are attached at Albany to all the former's serves the proud position it now holds, and which we believe it will never yield to a competing line. Its high reputation is really what would be expected from its management.—[Christian Leader.

"Do you know why so many people get deaf as they grow older?" said a leading physician Saturday in the course of a conversation. "It is because they sleep with their mouths open. Any man or woman who does this persistently for years will finally grow deaf. But that is not the only disadvantage of so sleeping. It is the cause of a score of affections of the throat and lungs, not to speak of snoring, which unfits anyone at once for human society. But the subject of improper breathing is wide. Not one person in 100 draws and expels the breath in a natural, healthy way."

expels the breath in a natural, healthy way."

—A friendly congregational social was held in the Talbot Street Baptist Church Friday night. Refreshments were served in the basement, and an adjournment made to the church, where addresses dealing with church matters were delivered by the pastor, Rev. Ira Smith, Messrs. Joseph Jeffery, J. V. Westervelt, F. Holman, Dale, Hotson and others. The musical part was well supplied by the choir, and Misses Sage and Messrs. Drewe and Brown.

—Notwithstanding the stormy weather there was a good attendance at the social entertainment in the King Street Methodist Church Friday night. After singing a hymn and prayer the company were delighted with the following: Quartet by Messrs. Goodge and A. Parker, lecture on "The Translations of the English Bible," by Rev. S. Bond; a solo by Mr. Goodge; by Rev. S. Bond; a solo by Mr. Goodge; "recitation, "Tennyson's Northern Cobbler," by Mr. A. George; a duet by the Misses Reason, and one by Miss Parker and Mr. Parker. Instruction and entertainment were very happily combined.

A Philosophic Entertainment.

The Congregation of Askin Street Methodist Church celebrated Good Friday evening by attending an "At Home," given by the Laidies' Aid Society. There was a large attendance, and for an hour or two pleasant social intercourse was indulged in, a plenteous supply of refreshments being served. The ladies had zealous assistants in entertaining their guests in Rev. Mr. McIntyre, the pastor, and the veteran Rev. Mr. Cosford.

In Aid of the Library.

The energetic committee of the Workingmen's Library Board which had the arrangements in hand for Friday night's concert, held in the East End Hall have cause to feel satisfied. Their eforts were not in vain, as in every particular the entertainment was a decided success. In spite of the inclemency of the weather the hall was crowded to the door, many being unable to obtain seats. Water Commissioner George C. Davis acted as chairman, and recorded himself in favor of the efforts of the workingmen of London to furnish the public with a free library and hoped the In Aid of the Library.
