street, narrowly escaped serious injuries while driving into the city on Dundas street on Tuesday night. When near Egerton street she brought the horse to a standstill while a trolley car attacked the loop at the fair grounds, and then drove on, being unaware that the cars, after turning the loop, continue east. The horse became uncontrollable and the car collided with the buggy.
Mrs. Wortman was thrown to the ground, but fortunately escaped injury.
The buggy was badly damaged, but the horse, though thrown off its feet, was unharmed.MR. JACOMB DEAD.Mr. W. H. Jacob, of Guelph, died

BURNED OUT.Mrs. McCracken's House on the Hamilton Road Destroyed With Most of the Contents.The house of Mrs. McCracken, a widow, with a large family of small children, who lived about a mile east of the city on the Hamilton road, was totally destroyed by fire last night. The poor woman is at a loss to account for the origin of the fire. She was out in the yard when she first noticed the smoke, and before her goods could be removed the house was enveloped in flames and soon burned down. There is some insurance on the house, but not sufficient to cover the loss.
Kind friends provided shelter for the little ones and mother, and made all as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.
Mr. McCracken died last March.Children Cry for
