Walter Raleigh introduced the use of tobacco in Europe centuries ago, but if he could to-day smoke a Highland Cattle cigar manufactured by H. The composition is of the choicest nature, the workmanship of the best and the flavor delicious. Try them.

Sometimes it costs hundreds of dollars to convey a man; very often less is required, but in the case of Folsom's NERVILINE, the best remedy for pain, 10 cents foots the bill, and supplies enough NERVILINE to cure prompt and certain pain remedy in the world. NERVILINE is good for all kinds of pain, pleasant to take, and sure to cure cramps and all internal pains. It is also nice to rub outside, for it has an agreeable smell, quite unlike so many other preparations, which are positively disagreeable to use. Try it now. Go to a drug store and buy a 10 cent or 25 cent bottle. Folsom's NERVILINE. Take no other.

It has done me a great deal of good, and I will try it further. —Grip in a recent issue said: "The cartoon which recently appeared in Grip (June 20), we are now satisfied, did Mr. Hardy great injustice. The information upon which it was based came to us from what we considered a reliable source, but upon further inquiry we are fully persuaded it was entirely destitute of truth. Neither Mr. Hardy nor any other member of the Government has ever received a contribution to the party funds from any hotel-keeper, Tory or otherwise. If any Reform license holders have ever contributed to that fund it has been without the knowledge of the members of the Cabinet. We are anxious that this explanation should have as wide a circulation as the cartoon which did the injustice."

Each Killed the Other.

DEADWOOD, S.D., July 20.—Geo. Goodstead, of Sturgis, has been courting the 15-year-old daughter of George Woods, a farmer, against the latter's wishes.

The father repeatedly threatened the young man with harm. On Monday they met, when Woods drew a pistol and fired two shots, both taking effect over his adversary's head and chest, and, drawing his gun, fired two shots, one striking the old man in the head and the other in the bowels. Goodstead died in a few seconds and Woods an hour afterwards.

"August Flower"

For Dyspepsia.

A. Bellanger, Propr., Store Foundry, Montigny, Quebec, writes: "I have used August Flower for Dyspepsia. It gave me great relief. I recommend it to all Dyspeptics as a very good remedy."

Ed. Bergeron, General Dealer, Lauzon, Levis, Quebec, writes: "I have used August Flower with the best possible results for Dyspepsia."

C. A. Barrington, Engineer and General Smith, Sydney, Australia, writes: "August Flower has effected a complete cure in my case. It acted like a miracle."

Geo. Gates, Corinth, Miss., writes: "I consider your August Flower the best remedy in the world for Dyspepsia. I was almost dead with that disease, but used several bottles of August Flower, and now consider myself a well man. I sincerely recommend this medicine to suffering humanity the world over." G. G. GREEN, Sole Manufacturer, Woodbury, New Jersey, U.S.A.

Had Done His Part.

Some years ago there lived in the western part of Pennsylvania an old circuit preacher known as Father West. His good humor and great kindheartedness had made him a special favorite with the young people of his district, and his services in "tying the knot" were in request.

On one occasion, so the story goes, upon his arrival at a certain town after a long journey he found several couples awaiting his blessing. The poor old man was tired and wished to make the ceremony as short as possible, so he said, with the promptness for which he was noted, "Stand up and join hands."

This request having been complied with, he went rapidly through a marriage service which was the product of his own originality, and had at least the advantage of brevity.

"There," he said, when he had finished the ceremony, "ye can go now; ye're man and wife, every one of ye!"

Two of the couples did not at once avail themselves of this permission, and presently it came out that the sudden command to "join" had confused them and they had taken the hands of the wrong persons.

The old preacher's eyes twinkled with amusement as he took in the situation. But he recollected himself and dispensed the company with a graceful wave of his hands.

"I married ye all," said he reassuringly; "now sort yourselves."

Modest bearing is very commendable in a man, but it is no recommendation to a fruit tree.
