TELLS PARISHIONERS HOW THEY SHALL VOTE

Quebec Cure Creates a Sensation By Statement From Pulpit.

[Canadian Press.] Montreal, May 14.-A sensation has een caused in provincial political circles here by a sermon delivered Cure Dulanger, in the Church of St Louis de France Sunday morning. The Cure said he wanted to urge his parishioners not to vote for men who would destroy their educational systems, and men that wanted to crush religion and the clergy. They must crush these dangerous reformers. He himself could not understand the argument that better schools were

McGEE POISONING CASE Caused Death of Children. [Canadian Press.]

The McGee polsoning case was resumed yesterday and several witnesses were examined. The chief evidence was from Dr. McMillan. Dr. McMillan said: "I was in St. ed to something out of the ordinary Mary's road April 13. I went there to last night, when "Ruth," a sacred can-

"The only other evidence was an ante-mortem clot in the right side of the heart. Death, we considered, was due to poison. R. M. Johnson made a chemical analysis, which I witnessed. We found no trace of antimony, arsenic or mercury, for which we tried. Afterwards I attended the coroner's inquest and an autopsy on the boy Johnny, and formed the opinion that death was due to phosphorus poisoning. I assisted in the analysis in Montreal on the organs. We found phosphoric acid phosphate. I have no ifornia. doubt whatever that death was due to phosphorus poisoning. The phosphorus contained in matches purchased by the McGees would be suffi-tient to cause death. Less than 25 phorus to kill an adult." SLIPPED ON BANANA PEEL

Peter rBemner, of East London, Injured on Dundas Street.

Peter Bremner, a cooper, of 786 Hill street, suffered a fracture of the hip as a result of slipping on a banana peel on Dundas street last evening. Mr. Eremner was removed to his home, and Dr. Jarvis was called. His injury, although not serious, is a painful one, and he was later removed to Victoria I Hospital. He will likely be laid up for

FOREIGNERS FINED FOR FISHING ON SUNDAY

Ingersoll Newcomers Did Not Know the Law and Were Summoned.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ingersoll, May 14. - That hunting and fishing are not in accordance with the orthodox observance of the Sabbath in Canada was impressed upon the intellects of half a dozen Macedonians who appeared in the po-lice court yesterday. Their diversion on Sunday consisted in carrying guns, which, it is claimed, they discharged at frequent intervals, and of fishing in the Thames. In consequence of their recreation they were haled into court. Harmless indeed, they appeared, and recreation they were haled into court. Harmless indeed, they appeared, and probably being strangers in a strange land they were not conversant with and they were not conversant with only one on file with the governor, and the nature of that report was kept well hidden within the executive department. firearms in the corporation, contrary to bylaws. The magistrate tempered ustice with mercy, and called upon the six to produce the sum total of $8 50, which, after all, may have been cultural Society a greater success than ever before. Efforts will be made to engage special attractions of a very interesting nature, and from the atten-tion that the ordinary features of the fair are receiving, it is believed highest expectations will be realized.
