SIX DOUBLE PLAYS MARK CANADIAN LEAGUE PHENOMS OF YESTERDAY ARE CANNED TODAY

-McManus, Brundage, Smith and Fryer Are Among Them.

[BY JINX.] This hot weather is hard on baseball phenoms. Apparently this is the off season for such individuals. Reports from Canadian League clubs today bring many surprises. Last evening Manager Amby Kane arrived home from a scouting trip in New England, and brought a couple of players to strengthen his Brantford with Agencient to the second such as a result it was announced last or players to strengthen his Brantford club. As a result it was announced last evening that Outfielder Brundage, who was the league's sensation in hitting in the earlier part of the season, and "Lefty" Smith, late of the Baltimore International League club, had been re-
