All Canadian Lines Unaffected By Threatened Gigantic Walkout.

London will likely receive another mpetus as a railway centre should the trike of 75,000 railway conductors and rainmen of the eastern American cailroads materialize next week. Canadian roads—the Canadian Pacific Canadian Northern, Grand Trunk, Grand Trunk Pacific, and the Canadian ines of the Micnigan Central, are no affected by the strike order. The resecond last council meeting Ald. Ben- sult of a strike will mean additional traffic for the lines throughout Canada. London, now on the main line one was able to give him any informa- of considerable eastern, and western American traffic, will benefit by the prepared, and he accordingly moved switching of traffic to the Canadian

Unless the employees of the Canadian roads are called out in sympathy with the strike that seems imminent of Mr. Marshall's report is on the the lines of the Eastern Passenger Asraffic end of the Port Stanley road. sociation, these will prove the only Rumor has it that Mr. Marshall and avenues of traffic for eastbound Mr. Eastman both being out-of-town freight. Fifty thousand miles of railway in the United States and 50,000,000 people are affected by the strike. The railway union leaders declare that the trike will absolutely tie up transportation for that area. Freight will not nove save via the Canadian roads. The esult of an additional terirtory of 50,-00,000 population being added to the reight possibilities af Canada are easy seen.

Would Help London. With their own terminals in Chicago he Canadian roads will be a salvation the American shipper, should the valkout be declared. To Anyone Interested in OUTDOOR ROSES

We extend a hearty invitation to view the show at our nurseries, Knollwood Park, at their earliest opportunity.

The garden roses, and particularly the climbers, are at their best, and the sight for a few days will be well worth the trip.

Take Oxford car to terminus, and then ten minutes walk east brings you to the conservatories
