William Gray, M. P., Is Sure London Won't Lose Soldiers -Not Right To Make Anyone "the Goat" in This Matter. He Declares, Over Long Distance Telephone From Chatham.

In an interview with The Advertise over long-distance telephone, Mr. Wil iam Gray, M. P. for London, who is at the Chatham Sanatorium, seriously stated that he had every confidence that the camp would be held for London. "And I want to say this: that I do not think that it is right to make anyone 'the goat' in this matter, for before I came to Chatham the last thing I did was to see Lieut.-Col. Shannon and ask him if everything was all right. He assured me that there wes nothing left undone by the city that should have been done," added Mr. Gray. Whom did you consider was responsible?" was asked.

"I did not believe anyone was responsible," he replied. "I am confident that everyone in London was anxious to do everything In his power to keep the camp, and that all that was needed was to be told what was required." What about the telegram that was received in reply to your telegram

Gen. Hughes? Was that given out by "No; it was not," answered Mr. Gray. "I received the wire after it had been sent me, unopened, in a special delivery letter, by my family,

The authority for use of the telegram came to ex-Mayor Graham from the Minister of Militia, and Mr. Graham secured it through the telegraph office He was asked for a copy of it, and gave it as follows:

Telegram to Mr. Gray. Ottawa, April 29, 1915. Villiam Gray, Esq., M. P., London

In reply to yours re camp, it would break my heart, William, should anything happen to you, but do not care one continental for the selfish fury of any populace. I am ooking after the soldiers of London. Have not turned one finger to help We were offered buildings a hundred other places last winter, but London for weeks past the plans have been to squeeze us into a little Recently we were asked to spend nearly $8,000 to make this little plot in London fit for troops. We did not observe much fury then when the effort was to have some money spent among you. Guelph offered suitable grounds free. We will take them unless we can better ourselves in London. If you and your people could get a move on and secure us absolutely suitable ground in sufficient area we will re-

Little Attention to Fury. As you know, I pay very little attention to fury which is merely the outcome of personal gain. If we followed that line we would have to locate troops in every part of Canada, because when petty jealousy and selfishness in each locality is touched, fury shows up. Let us look this thing squarely in the face. I am training soldiers for the front, not to put money into the pockets of certain organizations in all localities. Let your patriotism be stirred, of the following gentlemen, who have telegraphed me: My good brothen, Alf. Miller, John McClary, Col. Gartshore, and last but by no means least, your handsome and capable ex-Mayor Graham. See how much gravel you can scratch up today, and, as I said, if London shows that it is awake, we may stay there. Please read this in your own jocular, sensible awy.
