STAMBOULISKY IS CAPTURED BY THE BULGARS

Former Premier Is Caught By Government Troops After Hot Pursuit.

WAS IN DISGUISE

Sensation Caused By Discovery That He Cashed a Big Check.

Associated Press Despatch.

Sofia, June 15.—Former Premier Stamboulsky was captured yesterday at Melavia, a village near Slavovitz.

Stamboulsky started for Elshintza in an automobile disguised as an army chauffeur. He had shaved off his moustache. When he and his party arrived at Pirdio, his four remaining followers were captured or killed by the troops, and the automobile in which they were traveling was seized. During the fighting, Stamboulsky escaped and plunged into the forest.

Ivan Roussier, the new minister of the interior, issued the order for the capture of Stamboulsky. He was to be taken alive, if possible.

A sensation has been created by the discovery in the archives of the National Bank that Stamboulsky last March cashed a check for 120,000,000 leva, the sum having been authorized at a secret meeting of three members of the cabinet. The purpose of the expenditure was not designated, beyond the statement that it was for the security of the state. The moral character of Stamboulsky is being attacked by the press.

Londoner Presents Medals to Graduates

Many Nurses Receive Diplomas From St. Joseph's Hospital, Chatham.

Special to The Advertiser.

Chatham, June 14.—Graduation day of St. Joseph's Training School was celebrated in St. Joseph's Hall, Wednesday evening, and the auditorium was filled to capacity. The exercises were presided over by J. A. McNevin, and the musical part was given by Miss Margaret McKean, Miss Vera Smith, Miss Winnifred Bell, Miss Verna Heffron and Mr. E. Janisse, pupils of the Sisters of St. Joseph's School of Music, Sarnia. Dr. J. McNally, district health officer, London, addressed the graduates, while Right Rev. Monsignor O'Connor, V.G., also of London, had the honor of conferring the medals upon the graduates. School diplomas were presented by Rev. Father Gnam, and the registered nurses' diplomas by Ald. A. L. Thompson.

Miss Josephine Yack gave an address on behalf of the graduating class. The stage was most beautifully decorated for the occasion, and most of the flowers being gift bouquets to the graduates. A reception followed in the Gray-Dort Club, with the ladies of St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary as hostesses. Delicious refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed. The graduates are C. Mary Doyle, Wardville; Louise R. Delorme, Wallaceburg; Mary A. Kearns, Wardville; Kathleen A. Donovan, Chatham; Eleanor M. McNab, Chatham; Angela C. Bloude, Chatham; Catherine Ann Macdonald, Chatham; Bertha E. Griffin, Blenheim; Josephine P. Yack, Walkerton; and Laura Ursula Downey, Chatham.

ARRANGE GARDEN PARTY. Special to The Advertiser.

Rodney, June 15.—The ladies of New Glasgow Presbyterian Church are completing arrangements for a garden party, to be held on the Memorial Park grounds, Port Glasgow, Wednesday evening, June 27.
