

so choose to ex-
their own cost no revent them; but ough this may be wn interests, ships
et of the public—
r the coast at all
there are more and
els, looking at near e better for Vic-
ip those who help
rians must put s to the wheel, or nk deeper in the
SHIPMAN.

PERIMENT.

read in your paper Fisheries Inspector
e and a half mil-
in Shawnigan lake,
good enough to tell
or private) purpose s well known that
ke the hook, and the se of nets in our
to become of these ropagate? How are Shawnigan lake is
uch an experiment.
awful to use the net
a good-bye to our
out fishing.
FISHERMAN.

TH'S FAREWELL

crowded the First
last night and lis-
the farewell address
ooth. The soldiers
ry corps were pretti-
hiforms for the occasions introduced the
complimented the s of the British Col-
the services they

them for support,"
e not looked in vain, stantial help, in the
pria takes first place
the Atlantic for the ch it has contributed with regret that I
the Commandant
handkerchief from

ght a handkerchief
y tears, as I say fareone bravely, and I
inue to do so under tant as well as you

Army are toilers," mandant. "If you
existence, don't join r, for all the people in ve are toilers. Let

A young English-
mericans would say,
the style of a dude,
visit to New York.
the gangway he met
edle-nosed Yankee.
ocracy here," asked
'What are they,'
'People who don't
replied. 'Oh, people
y, we call them loaf-

Commandant said.
es not believe in our
alous soldier chimed

said the Command-
ere was one that did

id: "The Salvation
h simply because it
any people have the
at it is; but let me t say, though, that I
pathy for John Bull;
has been donated to
s smart men are la-
of the army.
y we are peculiar, but
of our soldiers is not e costume of fashionpresent day. When onnets we go for their
was young I learned a late I have rendered

to Banbury Cross
ty on her high horse,
ers, paint on her nose,
e wherever she goes.
the Salvation Army's
oon see that it is not

ndant sat down the
hed enthusiastically.
ajor Friedrichs, then ampbell for having
at their disposal.
p, of Nanaimo, sang a few words had been ecretary Holland, of r was offered by the d the meeting dis-
lited to shake hands
dant before he left.
ng the Commandant
etary Holland visited ion and addressed a nament. The address
y Rev. Mr. Gardner.
oth is making a fare-
ta before departing for the rupture in New dant said last evening
his brother's action but it would make any e to the army.

reech has been suc-
ment agent at Comox B. Anderson, who will
tant commissioner of s registrar of births,
ages, and registrar une act."

vardea
rs—World's Fair.

OR:
ICE'S
TEAM
KING
YDER
PERFECT MADE.
n of Tartar Powder. Free-
m or any other adulterant.
THE STANDARD.

NEW DOMINION PUBLIC BUILDINGS, VICTORIA, B. C.

THOS. FIDLER, ARCHTCT.
(VICTORIA)