The presentment was as follows: To the Hon. Theodore Davie,

Chief Justice: YOUR LORDSHIP-We the Grand Jury now assembled present to your Lordship the following report upon the various matters which have been brought to our Provincial Jail-The Grand Jury visited and made a thorough inspection of the Provincial Jail, finding everything in and about the establishment in perfect order. The building is scrupulously the grounds clean throughout, and very neatly kept. A careful inspection was made of the food supplied to the prisoners, this being found to be thoroughly wholesome and good as could possibly be desired. We desire to express our appreciation of the courteous manner in which we were received by Warden John on our visit of inspection,

Petition re Piggery-The following petition bearing 49 signatures was handed to us by Your Lordship: "We, the undersigned residents and property holders in the neighborhood and vicin ity of the property herein particularly mentioned, respectfully desire to direct Your Lordship's attention to the fact that there is at the junction of the Carey, Boleskine and Saanich roads, on lot 18. There having been apparently great neglect on the part of the tramway company and on the part of the city officials of any precautions for the safety of the traffic carried across this bridge, and it also being apparent that there is no law restricting the overcrowding of tramcars or the overloading of bridges, we recommend government take steps the enactment of laws both municipal and provincial such as will guard against the occurrence of such sufficiently strong for the requirements upon to bear. In the construction of the bridge we are strongly of the opinion of the bridge we are strongly of the opinion to cents and 1 cent respectively, East and West Indies. Incidentally bridge we are strongly of the opinion that the provincial government should render material assistance, this bridge being more than an ordinary connecting link between the city streets, it being the means by which one of the principal were doing considerable grumbling when the means by which one of the principal highways of the country enters the city.

(Sd.) E. B. MARVIN. Foreman Grand Jury. His Lordship in reply said he would bring the recommendations contained in the presentment before the proper authorities. He also commended the jury for having given attention to the correction of defects in the sanitary condition of the city. Improper drainage or imperfect sanitary conditions though outwardly not so apparently deadly as a horror like the breaking down of the Point Ellice bridge, were just as likely to prove, if allowed to continue, disastrous to the lives of the people in the city. He then excused the jury from further attendance unless they should be informed that they were further required before the close of the
