Clerical Version.

Wife—"Don't you think that handsome young parson is rather bold with the women of his congregation?"
Hub—"Yes, he evidently believes in the motto, 'Faint heart never won fair lady.'"

Some Relief.

Suburbanite—"That cat of yours kept me awake all night with its yowling."
Neighbor—"Sorry, but you don't want to kill it, do you?"
"No; but couldn't you get it tamed?"

SLASH-BURNING BLOW-TORCHES

Used in Madawaska and Restigouche Counties Successfully This Season.

Fredericton, Oct. 25.—The demonstration of the use of the kerosene blow-torch in burning slash in wet weather which was undertaken by the Department of Lands and Mines, has been so successful that two more torches have been ordered and burning by this method will be extended. The serious losses in timber-lands in recent years which often were caused by fires started by settlers, directed attention to the fact that slash-burning should take place during seasons in which there is no danger of fire spreading. On the Pacific Coast slash-burning takes place in the winter which is a rainy period, blow-torches being used to start the fires which when once started will burn themselves. It was decided to adopt the same method in New Brunswick. The Department had to arrange for demonstrations and procure the torch as the settlers would not go to the expense.

In Northern Counties. Madawaska and Restigouche counties where there has been much new settlement in recent years were selected for the demonstrations. The forest rangers have been demonstrating. One ranger is said to have burned sixty slashes in wet weather and others have done similar work. It is intended to extend these operations greatly. Wet weather is no hindrance to slash-burning when torches are used. Five gallons of kerosene are carried in a tank on the back and the torch is wielded by hand with hose-connection and throws a flame some two feet long.

In Use Locally. Last spring an area of some one hundred acres which had been logged for lath-making by Fraser Companies Limited in the eastern part of the city was burned by this means. It was a pronounced success.

FERGUSON-DICKIE. A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Wm. Dickie, Campbellton, on Wednesday, Oct. 25th, when his daughter Bessie was united in marriage with Mr. Eben Ferguson of Point La Nim, Restigouche County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Camp, B. D., in the presence of a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson will reside at Point La Nim.

NEW GENTS FURNISHING STORE

Messrs. Ferguson & Wallace Now Occupying Up-to-Date Store On Water St.

With the occupation of their new store on Water Street here last Friday Messrs. Ferguson and Wallace have added another and more important chapter to their history as local retail clothiers. And that history tells a story of rapid and steady advancement. A check-up in this line shows that the two members of the partnership above mentioned are the oldest clothing men in a business sense in that line of business for the past seventeen years, Mr. Ferguson being an active partner and joint owner in the old firm of Ferguson Bros., and Mr. Wallace having secured an intimate knowledge of the clothing business with a well-known local house.

The war proved an interruption of business life, but upon their return Messrs. Wm. Ferguson and George Wallace formed a partnership, under their present firm name and in the fall of 1919, opened a small gent's clothing store in the building opposite where their new store now stands. The steady growth of their business, however, made a larger place essential, so accordingly, they secured the whole ground floor of the building. Then when the opportunity presented their trade warranted the erection of an establishment of their own, the new firm built their present up-to-date store directly across the street.

The new store, although not overly large in modern in every respect, conveniently planned and presents a most attractive front. The furnishings are of fine Douglas fir in mahogany finish and this together with beautiful electric light fixtures in milky white design and other up-to-date store furniture gives the place a distinctly metropolitan air.

One side of the store will be devoted to shirts and neckwear, the other will display the latest in hats and caps, while the clothing department will occupy the rear of the building. With this their third move in three years at a building of their own, Messrs. Ferguson & Wallace are confident that with lighter overhead expenses and adherence to their policy of a quick turn-over at a reasonable margin they will be enabled to meet all competitors on an advantageous ground and be in a position to give their patrons genuine values and first class service at an economical cost.

BLUENOSE WINS IN SECOND RACE

Now Stands One-One in Fishermen's Contest—A Great Race.

(Special to the Graphic). Gloucester, Mass., Oct. 26.—In a most exciting finish, with one sale flapping in the breeze because of a broken spar, the Bluenose won yesterday's race by seven minutes. The contest now stands one win for the Henry Ford and one for the Bluenose.

BONAR LAW NAMES CABINET

Sixteen Members of Ministry Are Chosen—Others to be Named.

London, Oct. 24.—Premier Bonar Law tonight issued a list of the principal members of his ministry. His own name is not mentioned in the official list, which leaves it to be inferred he has no other office than that of Prime Minister and first lord of the treasury, the latter being a post without duties beyond those attaching to the premiership. The official announcement of the new ministers does not specify which among them will be members of the cabinet. There is no fixed rule governing the number of cabinet members, or which ministers shall be included, the selection being at the discretion of the prime minister. Bonar Law is credited with preferring a small cabinet, but a majority of those announced will certainly be members. London, Oct. 24.—The British ministry as announced this evening is as follows: Premier and First Lord of the Treasury, Right Hon. Andrew Bonar Law, Lord President of the Council, Marquis of Salisbury, Lord High Chancellor, Viscount Croke, Chancellor of the Exchequer, Stanley Baldwin.

Secretary for Home Affairs, William C. Briddeman, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Marquis Curzon, Secretary for the Colonies, the Duke of Devonshire, Secretary for India, Viscount Peel, Secretary for War, the Earl of Derby.

First Lord of the Admiralty, Lieutenant-Colonel L. C. M. S. Amery, President of the Board of Trade, Sir Philip Lloyd-George, Minister of Health, Sir Arthur Griffith-Boscawen, Minister of Agriculture, Sir Robert A. Sanders, Secretary for Scotland, Viscount Novar, Attorney-General, Douglas Mc G. Hogg.

Lord Advocate, Hon. W. A. Weston, President of the Board of Education, Edward F. L. Wood, M.P. for the Ripon division of Yorkshire. There are still several appointments to be made, and it is noticeable that the five offices held under Premier Lloyd George by Austen Chamberlain, H. A. L. Fisher, T. J. MacNamara, Sir Hanar Greenwood and the Earl of Crawford and Balcarres, who all joined Lloyd George in the wilderness, are not yet filled. It is expected that the office of chief secretary for Ireland will be abolished and that the ministry of labor will be merged into some other department.

SAY HARDING THINKS COUNTRY WILL REMAIN "DRY" FOR ALL TIME

Washington, Oct. 25.—President Harding was quoted by delegates to the conference of Allied Christian Societies who called upon him at the White House tonight just before the close of their two day meeting as declaring that the nation, in his opinion, would never depart from the eighteenth prohibition amendment.

Considerate. "Would you mind driving a little slower, old man?" "Not getting scared, are you?" "Oh, no, nothing like that, but I'd hate to take an unfair advantage of my life insurance company."

ANOTHER N. S. MAN IS SLAIN

Old Man Found Horribly Murdered in His Kitchen—Known to Have $200 in House.

Annapolis Royal, N. S., Oct. 22.—Thomas Berry, 75, a bachelor and farmer of Guinea, near here, was found dead in the kitchen of his home there this morning, with his skull crushed on the left side from the temple to the back of the head and with his shoulders and wrists badly bruised. He was lying face downward. An axe and a small piece of wood both blood-stained were found in a back porch. The porch led to a lobby and the lobby to the kitchen. The handles of the doors were spotted with blood and there were pools on both sides of the kitchen door. The room was generally upset. This and the bruise on the wrist and shoulder of Berry tend to the belief that there was a struggle but it is also said that it looked as though the farmer was struck while attempting to enter the kitchen and close the door. Mr. Berry was known to have had two hundred dollars on his person recently. Chief Detective Horace Kennedy, Halifax will be at Guinea tomorrow morning to conduct an investigation.

The dead farmer's body was found following inquiry by the wife of his brother Edward Berry, who lived on the other side of the road, and who became worried at the failure of her brother-in-law to make any appearance Saturday on this morning. She had seen a light in his house Friday night.

FAVOR FEDERATION OF COLLEGES

Delegates Approve One Central University If Problems Can Be Solved.

Halifax, Oct. 24.—The convention here today of more than forty representatives of maritime colleges, the governments of the three provinces and Newfoundland, and the Catholic archdiocese of Halifax agreed that, subject to a satisfactory working out of the problems involved, it "was of the utmost importance to the people of the maritime provinces and Newfoundland that there should be a confederation of the existing higher institutions of learning, and that these institutions should move to Halifax and become constituents of a new university." The agreement was made in the adoption, in an amended form, of a report brought in by the constitution committee. The report as adopted also provided that the colleges moving to Halifax should retain each its name, charter, endowments, property, and governing body. The proposed confederating colleges should hold in abeyance their degree conferring powers except in divinity. The report also stated: "That in addition to the denominational college there should be a non-denominational constituent college which shall have its own board of governors and be distinct from the new university, and the names of the non-denominational college and central university be left to a future meeting."
