WATFORD, JULY 12, 1907.

Too Late.

Our fool treatment of Canada in another illustration of what our legislators can accomplish. The Dominion has now made up her mind to treat us as harsh laws as can be devised, and her decision is wise and right. For a quarter of a century she has waited patiently, while one President after another, and one Secretary of State after another, devised treaties intended for the mutual benefit of Canada and the United States. Every time the Senate, imagining itself to exist for sequestering benefits desired by the well-entrenched, has protected its clients against the administration and the people. Calmly, at length, Canadian leaders have seen that no fair measure of reciprocity could ever pass the Senate, and she has decided to do all in her power to stop trade with us, to develop it with England and other colonies; to favor all Europe against the United States, to develop her own incalculable resources. We wish her well. Whatever harm our ass policy brings to us has been full and painstakingly deserved.—Collier's Weekly.

The Strawberry Attacked.

Let all the strawberry eaters spring to the defence of their favorite fruit, which is being grievously set upon by a fashionable London physician. His charge is that strawberries, taken in quantities of more than a dozen at a time, produce bad temper, particularly in women, who become sulky and intolerant of questions.

It is no new thing to learn that our ministering angels have their fits of pique, but it is surely stretching a point to ascribe their little huffs to such a cause. Impatient of questions! Save the mark. Who'd have ever guessed it was strawberries? Is there nothing else to bring about that frame of mind? Silence is a refuge. Besides, every woman has a right to what goes on in her own head. Let us respect the privacy of her thoughts, but for heaven's sake, don't let us blame the strawberries when she refuses to answer. A woman need not do wrong to have something to conceal. Every heart has its shrine, its sacred inner room, whose door nobody is allowed to rap at. Most often it is guarded by silence and a distant manner. Only the basest of Materialists could identify these sentinels with a surfeit of strawberries.

We observe that our London doctor cautions his patients not to take more than a dozen berries at a time. That he should be obliged to tender this advice only goes to show that English-women are not nice in their feeding. Either the strawberries in England are very small, or the ladies' mouths are very large. In any case, twelve strawberries at a gulp looks more like the work of a wine press than of a person in good society. In Canada we are satisfied to eat our strawberries singly. Sometimes the best re-

Help! Help! I'm Falling

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.

By the gate of our lips he passes to the tongue, the teeth nipping him and taking toll of his flavor. He lingers a while on the palate, like a whisper of love, and then he goes the way of all good strawberries, titillating the soul as he travels along the gullet. No ill effects can come of eating strawberries this way.—Star.

FATHER, MOTHER AND CHILD All Cured by Zam-Buk.

"Zam-Buk is the best household balm ever brought into a home." Such is the opinion of Mrs. Sarah McDonald, of Birr (Ont.). She says: "My little girl had a severe and obstinate rash on her skin. I applied Zam-Buk a few times and the skin trouble, which had defied all our remedies, went away like magic. Soon afterwards my mother burned her finger. Zam-Buk was applied, and immediately eased the pain. My father got scratched with barbed wire. Zam-Buk closed the wound, prevented blood poison, and healed the injury in quick time. I consider that for skin disease and injuries Zam-Buk is really wonderful."

For eczema, abscesses, summer skin troubles, insect stings, sore feet, chafed places, cuts, burns, bruises, etc., Zam-Buk is a sure cure. Also for piles. 50 cents per box, all stores and medicine vendors, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

High Court of Justice.

[Before Britton J.]
Logan v. Drew.—Judgment in an action brought by a jury at Sarnia. Action by William J. Logan to have declared that certain assignments of mortgages, amounting to about $5,600, made by his father John Logan, to the defendants his sisters, though absolute in form, were made to defendants as trustees for the assignor, plaintiff being representative of his father by assignment of his claim. The assignor is 75 years of age. The learned Judge finds that there was no fraud or undue influence or weakness of mind or want of proper advice. Action dismissed with costs. Thirty days stay. E. M. Meredith K. C. R. M. C. Tooth, and I. Greenizen, for plaintiff. A. Weir, Sarnia, for defendants.

A Bachelor's Romance.

"What," asked the sweet girl, "was the happiest moment of your life?"
"The happiest moment of my life," answered the old bachelor, "was when the jeweler took back an engagement ring and gave me sleeve links in exchange."

FARR-THOMAS.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. Joshua Thomas, Inwood, on Wednesday, June 26th, at high noon, when his daughter, Addie Elizabeth, was married to Mr. M. B. Farr, commercial teacher in Alma College. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Warner, Principal of Alma College, assisted by Rev. J. M. Wallace, M. A., B. D. The bride's gown was of white French faille en train and she carried a large shower bouquet of cream roses.

After the ceremony the guests numbering about fifty repaired to a beautiful marquee erected on the lawn, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was provided.

Many costly presents attested to the popularity of the young couple. The bride's going away gown was of black and white Shepherd's plaid silk with touches of green with hat and coat to match.

The young couple were driven to the G. T. R. station en route for London and Jarvis, thence to Kentucky, where Mr. Farr has purchased a commercial college.

Sleeper Loses Trousers.

Toronto, July 5.—"Allan Raymond" called Inspector Black, who stood at the dock in the police court.

There was a little pause and Allan stepped forward.

"Oh," said his worship, "this man had no trousers on when he was arrested. Is he clad now?"

Investigation revealed the fact that Raymond was fully dressed. And then Raymond, who was charged with being drunk, told a remarkable story.

"I was going home last night," he said, "when I got lost. I lay down and went to sleep. While I was sleeping someone came along, took my trousers off and walked away with all my money. I had to get home as best I could, but was arrested on the way."

Amidst a gale of laughter Raymond was allowed to go.

Ontario Board of Health is Trying to Purify Cheese Factories.

Toronto, Ont. July 5.—Dr. C. A. Hodgetts, secretary of the provincial board of health, is making arrangements to install at one or two representative cheese factories, septic tanks and any other appliances found necessary for the disposal of sewage. "This subject has theretofore received very little attention from a scientific standpoint, and the necessity for better provision for the disposal of sewage is becoming more and more apparent. The cost will not be great, and it is expected that the department of agriculture in conjunction with the provincial board of health will be prepared later in the season to make some definite recommendations as to the most suitable methods for the disposal of factory sewage."

Contracts Hold.

That farmers must live up to the terms of their contracts with canning concerns was decided firmly by Vice-Chancellor Leaning, of Camden, N. J., May 7. The case under consideration was that of Curtis Bros. Co. which had a cannery at Woodstown, against Jas. E. Gattis and others, farmers, who had made contracts to deliver their entire output of tomatoes to the Company at a stipulated price. It is alleged that the contracts were broken by the farmers, who sold their product to outside buyers when the price of the vegetable advanced under sharp competition.

In deciding that the farmers must abide by the terms of their contracts, the vice-chancellor said that if necessary a receiver could be appointed to harvest the crop and deliver it to the company which had contracted for it.—American Grocer.

Lucky Find.

Ruthven, June 25.—While rowing along the shore of the lake E. R. Wigle noticed what he took to be a large sack on the shore. On examination, he found it was a large cork life preserver, and that it contained a cotton bag in which was secreted quite a tidy sum in bills and silver. Mr. Wigle nearly fell in the lake after making the discovery. He is waiting for the owner to call and identify the preserver, together with the currency.

Kingsville Mystery.

Mystery still surrounds the disappearance of a package containing $500, which Ernest Brown, of the firm of Brown & Wigle, shipped on May 30. The money was traced to the stage driver, Clay Cooper, who claimed he delivered it to Edward Liddle, the agent of the Pere Marquette station. Liddle, however, denied that Cooper had given him the parcel.

Winnipeg, Man., July 5.—John Peters and wife were drugged and robbed of $200 in immigration hall in some mysterious manner. The crime had been reported to the police. The money was concealed in the woman's stocking, which she was wearing at the time.

CROP PROSPECTS GOOD.

Brandon Farmers Are Satisfied With the Outlook.
Brandon, Man., July 5.—W. Philip, one of the big farmers of the Beresford district, says the crop outlook in his locality is first class. There has been abundant moisture, and north towards Alexander so much rain that it assumed the nature of a flood. Melville Boddick, of Brandon Hills, says that although his district missed the early rains, the recent big showers have done great good and the growing crops are coming ahead rapidly.

"Bu-Ju"

UNBIDGE, AUG. 31st, 1904.
"It is with much pleasure that I send you this testimonial, regarding the wonderful benefit I have derived from the use of Bu-Ju Kidney Pills. Have been an invalid for nearly 3 years, with Inflammatory Rheumatism, and was bed-fast until about 6 months ago, when an old friend of the family called to see me, and left me some of your Pills. I began to feel the benefit of them after taking one box. I have continued using them and am now able to get out of bed and dress myself and can go without crutches. Before taking the Pills I was as helpless as an infant and had to be taken care of like one."
JOHN McCULLOUGH.

Sick, weak kidneys are responsible for Rheumatism, Sciatica and Neuralgia. When the kidneys are not well, they won't filter out uric acid from the blood. It is this poison, remaining in the blood and carried to joints, muscles, nerves, that causes the pain. The only way to permanently cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica—is to cure the CAUSE of the trouble—the Kidneys. The only safe, certain way to make sick kidneys well is to take Companionship of Books.

Will you go and gossip with your housemaid or your stable boy when you may talk with kings and queens, while this eternal court is open to you, with its society wide as the world, multitudinous as its days, the chosen and the mighty of every place and time? Into that you may enter always, in that you may take fellowship and rank according to your wish. From that, once entered into it, you can never be outcast but by your own fault.—John Ruskin.

Mislead the Pudding.

Dinner was late, but when the mistress started to make a mild remonstrance the new maid was on time with her excuse.
"Sure," she said, with an irresistible Irish smile as she placed the soup on the table, "sure, I mislead the pudding, and there I was hunting the house for it, and where would it be ather all but in the oven!"

July 'Canadian Pictorial'.

Truly Canadian is the July number of this progressive Canadian monthly. The cover picture is a charming photographic study of a girl in the Western Ontario meadow, dotted with daisies. The public man featured this month is the Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, and a page of pictures illustrates the weird funeral customs which the Hindoos have brought from India to British Columbia. The new provinces' progress is shown in pictures of the great irrigation works and the kind of cattle Alberta produces. The Japanese Prince, who is now crossing the Pacific in a British man-of-war, is pictured at various places on his journey across Canada. Three pages are devoted to the Presbyterian General Assembly last month. The pick of Canadian sharpshooters are shown in a group picture taken for the 'Canadian Pictorial' just before the Bieleys team sailed for England. Political friends and foes alike will be interested in the ceremony of making a Bencher at Gray's Inn of Sir Wilfred Laurier. The leading article in the woman's section is a sketch of the National Council of Women of Canada, with photographs of the Countess of Aberdeen, its founder and Lady Edgar, its president. An anecdotal story, 'Photographing Crowned heads,' illustrated with pictures up to the 'Pictorial's usual high standard, will be read with interest by everyone who ever handled a camera.
