The Rev. Alex. MacLean was called to the Chair, and a Secretary to the meeting appointed.

The Chairman having explained the object of the meeting to be, the formation of a Highland Society, for the purpose of sending home correct information to persons intending to emigrate from the Highlands of Scotland to this Province, and affording them such assistance and advice, upon their arrival, as may be required. He then pointed out the actual ignorance of even the well informed in North Britain as to the location of this Province, adding, that we were thought to be sort of appendage to Canada, that there existed a prejudice against New Brunswick, and that numbers of emigrants arrived at Prince Edward's Island, Nova Scotia, and Canada, during the last year. Fhe Rev. Gentleman then read a letter from Mr. E. Ward, Emigrant Agent, Fredericton, informing him that that the land lying between the north-west branch of the Digdeguash and the Canoose Stream, would be laid out preparatory to the arrival of a number of Emigrants who are expected out in the spring.

If from this circumstance, as well as from the whole history of the case, you can discover any indication on the part of Great Britain, other than of a settled determination never to peaceably yield a large portion of the territo-ry in controversy you will be more fortunate than I have been, The course which, under this view, the general government should pursue, to my mind, admits neither of doubt or hesitancy. National honour, as well as justice to Maine, clearly indicate it—and that is —to purge the soil of this State, effectually and without delay, of every vestige of British encroachment. And then, if there is to be further reconstruction more the subject, let it be further negotiation upon the subject, let it be on the part of Great Britain to obtain, what for more than a quarter of a centur, she has refused to yield.
