

The Cosmopolitan: New York.

There are no less than 154 separate illustrations in the January number of this enterprising magazine, those in "Japan Revisited," (by Sir Edwin Arnold), and "Beauties of the American Stage," being particularly fine. In the article on "The English Laureates," by R. H. Stoddard, portraits are given of the different poets who have obtained that distinction from Johnston's time to the present. The whole number is a credit to the publishers.

The Magazine of Christian Literature: The Christian Literature Co., New York.

The January number of this magazine is quite up to the mark in the way of able and instructive articles on questions bearing upon Christianity in various forms both past and present. Clergymen and laymen, alike, will find it useful in the way of helping them to keep abreast with the times, and in touch with modern thought regarding matters both within and without the Anglican Church. Besides many able separate articles, the serial articles by Archdeacon Farrar, Dean Spence, Bishop Ellicott, Prof. Watts and Rev. Arthur Jenkinson, are continued.

The Missionary Review of the World for February sustains the reputation of that excellent magazine for breadth of scope and for timeliness in its articles. The editor-in-chief, Dr. A. T. Pierson, contributes the second article of a series on "Our World," a survey of the Mission field at the present time, and a summing up of the forces and factors now at work for the extension of Christianity. "Our Missionary Heroines—By Faith," is the title of an article by Dr. J. T. Gracey. "Confucianism," by Rev. A. P. Happer, D.D., is a very able exposition of that religious system. Rev. A. J. Gordon, D.D., contributes the third article of a series on the "Forerunners of Carey." Other articles of much interest are to be found in its pages.

Published by Funk & Wagnall's Company, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York City, at $2.00 a year.

The Pulpit (Edwin Rose, Publisher, Buffalo, N.Y.) continues to supply monthly a goodly array of sermons for divines of note throughout the world.

Newbery House Magazine: Griffiths, Farren, Okeden & Welsh, London, England. This magazine comes every month as a welcome visitor. Its articles are usually on themes of interest to Churchmen, but frequently are of a general nature, instructive for all. Numerous illustrations from time to time are found in it.

Germania: A. W. Spanhoofd, of Manchester New Hampshire, publishes an interesting periodical for the study of the German language. Each number contains valuable assistance for students of that tongue.

The Churchman: New York; M. H. Mallory & Co. 47 Lafayette Place, New York. A weekly Church paper, well known as one of the best Church periodicals published.
