

TO THE FREEHOLDERS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PICTOU.

GENTLEMEN—

At the solicitation of a number of respectable Freeholders I have been induced to offer myself as a Candidate for the Township of Pictou, to Represent you in the next General Assembly. Should you deem me worthy of receiving such honour at your hands, you may rest assured that my humble abilities will be unceasingly devoted to the promotion of your interests, and the general welfare of the Province.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient humble servant.

GEORGE McDONALD.

West River, Nov. 7, 1836.

TO THE FREEHOLDERS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PICTOU.

GENTLEMEN,

In offering myself a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election, in compliance with the urgent request of a very respectable number of friends, a few words will be sufficient to comprehend all that is necessary to be stated respecting my qualifications and promises. Residence among you from my infancy,—personal acquaintance with most of you,—similarity of occupation,—sameness of interest,—extensive and minute acquaintance with the circumstances, wants, and resources of the Township,—and a sincere and ardent desire to promote, according to my best ability, the interest of my native place, are my principal recommendations. Should I meet with support, and be returned as your Representative, you may be assured that the Farming Interest will always command my first attention; the improvement of Roads and Bridges, the most rigid Economy of the Public Money, the advancement of Education, and every object which will tend to promote the welfare of the country, will always meet with my encouragement and support.

I have the honour to be,

Gentlemen,

Your most obedient humble servant,

DONALD FRASER.

MRS. NORTON.

Few have had such keen experience of the bitterness of political malice, as this unfortunate lady. Moving in and adorning the highest circles of rank and fashion, she has been dragged down by those who were determined to spare no measures to make a minister odious to the people. It is bad enough that in the unholy race for political preferment, the private character of a man must be blackened by every thing that falsehood or malignity can invent; but female reputation is of so frail and delicate a texture, that the least breath of suspicion, however unfounded, leaves upon it indelible marks of its presence. He who can thus invade the sanctuary of the domestic hearth, for the purpose of dragging to light every temporary indiscretion, every thoughtless word, must be destitute of all fine feeling or generous motive. Mrs. Norton has been declared, by a jury, wholly innocent of the charges preferred against her; but still the disgrace of a public trial, and her exclusion from the exalted position which she has held in society, have been sufficient punishment, even had she been guilty. She has written, it is said, a most touching letter to her husband, in which she solemnly declares her entire innocence of the conduct imputed to her, and entreats him, by his regard for his own honor, and by his love for his children, not to listen to the evidence of personal enemies and corrupted servants. It is also stated that she has written to Lord Melbourne. Whether these letters will produce any effect, remains to be seen; at all events, she has received a wound which time itself can scarcely heal.
