Deacon James McPherson began with us before the N. B. Church was organized. The son of two of our original members David and Catherine McPherson, of happy memory he was a scholar 8 years old in our Sunday School that preceded the church. He was converted in 1857 or 8, and baptized by Pastor Samuel N. Bentley. When Evangelist Earle was here, twenty-four years ago, Bro. McPherson was re-baptized by the Holy Ghost, and has been diligent in season (there has been no "out of season") following his Master. He is head of the dry goods firm of McPherson & Freeman.
