

The Territorial Division Act (R.R.O. c. 3) contains the following provisions in regard to townships bounded by lakes and rivers:

“6—(1). Except as provided in ss. 2 and 3, the limits of all the townships lying on the River St. Lawrence, Lake Ontario, the River Niagara, Lake Erie, the River Detroit, Lake St. Clair, the River St. Clair, Lake Huron (not including the Georgian Bay), the River St. Mary’s and Lake Superior (not including Thunder Bay, Black Bay and Nipigon Bay), shall extend to the boundary of the Province in such lake or river, in prolongation of the outlines of each township respectively; and, unless otherwise provided, such townships shall also include all the islands, the whole or the greater part of which are comprised within the said outlines so prolonged.

“(2) Sub-section 1 shall not apply to that part of Ontario at the head of Lake Ontario lying west of the east boundary of the County of York produced southerly to the International boundary line, but in that part the limits of all townships on either side of the lake shall extend to a line drawn from the intersection of the east boundary of the County of York produced with the International boundary line, and westerly to the old outlet of Burlington Bay.

“(3) The township of South Walsingham shall include the whole of Long Point, 10 Edw. VII. c. 2, s. 6.

“7. The limits of the townships lying on the River Ottawa shall in like manner extend to the boundary between the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, 10 Edw. VII. c. 2, s. 7.

“8. The limits of the townships in the County of Glengarry shall in like manner extend to the middle of Lake St. Francis and to the middle of the main channel of the River St. Lawrence, and, unless herein otherwise provided, shall also include every island, the whole or the greater part of which is comprised within the outlines of such townships so prolonged, 10 Edw. VII. c. 2, s. 8.

“9. The limits of the townships on the Bay of Quinte, the Georgian Bay, Thunder Bay, Black Bay and Nipigon Bay, the River Trent and its lakes, the River Thames, the Grand River and any other rivers, lakes and bays not hereinafter mentioned, shall in like manner extend to the middle of such lakes and bays,
