

were staring, his head was bent half under him ; he was quite unconscious, and was snoring in a most determined and alarming manner. More noise still, and much motion. And then his eyes overtook Dr. Keith's feet and legs making valorous efforts to overturn the supper table, or more probably to annihilate everything that was on it. After such convincing testimony to its power, Sir James lost no time in publicly proclaiming the virtues of the new anæsthetic.
