THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

ty disclaim with which it is accepted by the parties who are the subject of it. Coriolanus himself did not confront ill will with a haughtier brow. Indeed, as a general rule, an English man is never so repulsive as when it is his cue to conciliate opposition, and disarm unreasonable prejudice-Six Months in Italy.

IRELAND AND THE IRISH—CONTRAST BETWEEN "THE TWO COUNRIES"—A COLLER FOR THE CLERGY—BAMBOOZLING THE BAL-LIFFS-CHARITY REQUITED.

Stoneybatter, Jan. 19, 1854.

A purty example yer sittin' us on that side of the channel, half killin' yer wives, gettin' up bread riots, and grumblin' at the price o' coals-each and all of em shabby specimens of delinquency, which perpethrated by Paddy, would be voted "barbarous," and at thributed, of coorse, to the dellytareous influence of Docthor Cullen and the "Tinnant-League" combined! But God help us, Thady, we're used to small inconvayniences, social and physical-and can shiver or starve, without makin' too great an ullgoane about it, and why should we?

Haven't we poor laws and pathriots, public dinners (for those that can afford to attind 'em), when the reinversation o' the country forms one o' the coorsesresolutions passed that would make any prime minister not provided with a heart of a damant, enthrails of iron, and a face o' freestone shake in his small clothes! and with these imposin' ingraydients of prosperity, wouldn't it be downright indeceny to grumble? Erra, his easily known the stimulus prosperity gives. We all undherstand how sthraws thrown up show the coorse o' the wind; and my hand to you, the late snow would be a long time lyin' on the ground before the study dinnizins of our "Commercial Buildin's" would resort to the rere o' the premises, and pelt one another with snowballs, like the Liverpool play-boys. Full purses, like well-furnished stomachs, exercise a stirrin' influence where recrayation is concerned; and what was fun there, would be lunacy here!

In fact, Thady, I'm beginnin' to imagine that the whole system in these parts is about to undergo thransformation! Isn't there actually some talk, man alive, of the electoral system bem' palsied by the intherdiction from the head quarthers of Rome itself, of the clargy evermore havin' hand, act, or part in elections, or political demonsthrations. Maybe that wouldn't be a party state of affairs. I declare we'd have the Tory landlords flocking over to kiss his Holiness's toe; and such a thing as an agent dhropt from behind a ditch, or a thraytenin' notice pasted on the hall doore, would be as rare as a policeman answerin' cheerfully to the first shout for him on a wet night, or a conscientious conthribution towards the income tax.

If I'm not greatly out in my reck'nin', it was of onld "Spatther M'Carthy," as he was nick-named (by reason o' bein' such a dirty walker) my father, rest his sowl, used to tell a good story, some forty years ago.

"Spatther" lived, d'ye persave, with a priest convaynient to Castle Island, and it so happened that his revirence got mixed up in some law thransactions, and the attorney that was against him made out a "writ," or "green-wax," or some other devilment on parchmint and enthrusted it to a pair o' bailiffs, that fortunately happened to be as ignorant, except by hearsay, of his reverince's personal points as they wor of asthronomy.

Well, behould you, McCarthy got the wind o' the word, and the clergy man bein' absent attendin' a sick call, "Spather," no sooner persaved the pair o' playboys apprachin' than he slipt on a long black surtoo, and a broad-leaved hat o' the mustber's, and saunthered down a bye-road, takin' care they should have him in full view. 'Twasn't long till they came up and informed him, afther a power of apologizin' and conthrition, what they were up to.

"Oh, very well, boys," says he, "d've mean to tell me that 'tis your vocation to lay yer dirty fingers on the Lord's anointed?" With that the vagabonds had the assurance to request he'd take the hardship o' the case into consideration, and recollect that if they did n't discharge the duty, other would be got to do it. So afther a smart taste more of conthroversy, "come up to my little place, at any rate, ye reprobates," says M'Carthy, "till I give ye a dhrop o' refreshmint, and prepare a change of linen for myself." Accordingly all three went up to the house, and "Spatther," afther-winkin' to the ould housekeeper, onlered her to bring the decanter and a couple o' glasses; and when he consaived the bailiffs had time to be a thrifle mollified, in he walks to the kitchen, with a book in one hand, a lighted candle in the other, and the vestmints of one o' the curates on him. The bailiffs, of coorse, got into a cowld perspiration, and one of 'em thrimbled to that extint that he split some and you may be sore it didn't help to compose him at all, when my bould "Spatther," after sportin' a Latin expression or two, exclaimed—"Now, ye unfortunate pair of misgnided male fauthers. pair of misgnided malefacthors, I'm happy to say, notwithstandin' yer unfounded andacity, there's such climminey in my heart that I'm willin' to grant ye the option of quitting' my presence at once in yer own proper shapes, or afther lingerin' (we'll say three minutes) to throt off as a pair o' turkey cocks."

Erra, my dear life, there was small occasion to "press the question," for the Inrehes o' the law made for the doore so viciously that they upset a poor woman, with twins at her back, that was waitin' for a few preatees outside; and down to the high road with 'em, as if "Spatther McCarthy?" was afther startin em in a foot race for a pig's countenance and a jug of

The news, of coorse, got wind, and conshumin to the bailiff could be prevailed on to go next or near the place! When his real reverince hear tell o' the sthratajim, he looked sayrious, the he often laughed over this private, in the company o' the leadin' parshioners; and not long afther that the law proceedings wor satisfactorily adjusted. To be sure, to be sure, what a beautiful business the English beggars do from time to time. There's the solicithors that enjoy a capital practice in as ex-tinsive coort of appeal. No clumsiness, such as was exhibited by the ould woman at Kingstown, that was often relieved by a lady, who kept continually givin³, wither to be really a lady, who kept continually givin³, wither to herself or her brats, broken vittals and small change, or the like, till one day the beggar woman came at her, as she was dhrivin' out to the country, and, "Oh then; ma'am dear," says she "may the light o' heaven shine on you, but I'll make bould to let you know that poor dear little Tommy has just died on me, and a happy death and favorable judgedied on me, and a happy death and favorable judgment to yer ladyship if you'll ordher me an ould sheet to now! him in."

Well, the kind lady handed her some relief and sent back directions to the house to give her what she required; and so the other throtted off, prain' as intintly as a friendless young curate in the presence of a sthrict bishop.

It so happened that in about a week afther, the charitable lady was drivin near Bray, and who should she come plump on but the ould imposthor, and she havin' the usual "ragged staff" o' children in attendance, and bein' moreover herself a thrifle undher the influence o' sthrong wather!

"Why, my goodness," says the jintlewoman, pullin' up her pony carriage and pointin' with the whip-"isn't that poor, dear little Tommy alive and looking well?

"To be sure it is," hiccupped out the other saucily. You didn't expect ninepence and an ould sheet was to bury the creathur!

Is it any wondher, Thady, so much charity begins at home, and ends there too.

Yours, TERRY DRISCOLL.

Mr. ODonohoe, St. Giles's London. -Cor. of Galway Vindicator.

DR. M'LANE'S VERMIFUGE.

Doring a practice of more than twenty years, Dr. M'Lane had attended innumerable patients afflicted with every form of worm disease, and was induced to apply all the energies of his mind to the discovery of a vermifuge, or worm destroyer, certain in its effects; the result of his labors is the American Worm Specific, now before the public, which is perfectly safe, and may be given alike to children of the most tenderage, or to the aged adult; it purges midly and subdues fever, and destroys worms with invariable success. It is easy of administration, and as it does not contain mercury in any form whatever, no restrictions are necessary with regard to drinking cold water, nor is it capable of doing the least injury to the tenderest infant. An incredible number of worms have been expelled by this great vermifuge.

Purchasers will please be careful to ask DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.

WM. LYMAN & Co., St. Paul Street, Wholesale Agents for Montreal.

MURPHY & CO'S RECENT PUBLICATIONS.

AN IMMENSE SALE!—UPWARDS OF 2,000 COPIES SOLD THE FIRST MONTH!

A WORK THAT EVERY BODY OUGHT TO READ! THE TRUE HISTORY OF THE ITALIAN REVO-

Just Published, in 2 vols. 12mo. of nearly 800 pages; cloth lettered, 82. Cloth gilt edges, 83.

THE JEW OF VERONA:

HISTORICAL TALE OF THE ITALIAN REVOLUTING OF $46.9: Translated from the Second Revised Italian Edition.

In reply to various inquiries, and with the view of affording to our distant friends every facility to rend this great work, we will, on the receipt of $2, send a copy by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States.

The Publishers feel great pleasure in aunouncing the unpre-cedented sale of this work as the very best evidence of its ex-traordinary merits. Want of room compels them to forego the pleasure of publishing extracts from the notices of the Press, which have been universal in its praise. That the public may form some idea of the tone and character of the work, the following brief synopsis is respectfully submitted :-

This work is from the pen of the Rev. Father Breseiani, S.J., the distinguished editor of the Civilta Cattolica, published in Rome, and one of the most eminent writers of Eu-The author, who was an eve-witness of many of the events which he relates, gives a truthful history of the con-vulsions of Europe, and more especially of the scenes of de-vustation committed in Italy and in Rome, from the death of Gregory the Sixteenth to the attack on the Quirinal Palace and the flight of Pope Pius the Ninth.

The principal object of the author in preparing the work, was to expose the wicked tendency and the treacherons designs of the secret societies. Of these nefarious associations. he draws the most vivid picture. He removes the draw cloud which envelopes them, and exhibits them in all their hideous

As the design of the Jew of Verona was to open the eyes of the young men of Italy to the horrors of the sceret societies, may we not indulge the hope that it may accomplish the same desirable object among the youth of America? May they learn from its truthful pages to avoid the sources laid for their destruction by the imminerable secret associations by which they are surrounded. But the warning voice which it raises against secret societies, is only one of the many merits of the work. The danger of bad books, their corrupting influence over the minds of the young, is distinctly marked out. They are ready yehicles in the hands of secret societies for disseminating their pernicious doctrines, and of ultimately accomplishing their neferious ends.

The true character of Mazzun, of Kossuh, of Lola Mon-tes, and of other prominent actors in the late convulsions of Europe, and even that of "Father Gavazzi," is unfolded in the truthful pages of the Jew of Verona; and as many of these noted personages have visited our shores, and are at the present moment disseminating in our midst their poisonous principles, it is important that the public should know their bistory and understand their characters.

principles, it is important that the public should know their history and understand their characters.

The brilliancy and vivacity of its style, the beauty and delicacy of its description, charm the reader and throw around its pages a fascinating influence, which renders it a work of unprecedented interest.

2,000 COPIES SOLD IN TWO MONTHS!

Just Published, in 1 vol. 12mo. Cloth 75 ets. JUSTO UCONDONO," Prince of Japan. By Philalethes.

The Publishers have the pleasure to announce that this work has met with a very cordial reception, and an extensive and unprecedented sale, for an original American work, by an unknown author.

"A book of rare merit, profound reasoning, and of extensive philosophical and theological research. It may be read with equal profit by all Christian denominations, being a powwith equal profit by all Christian denominations, being a powerful defence of our common Christianity against irreligion, indifferentism, and every other evil. The work is written in a clear, forcible, and most attractive style. It seems peculiarly adapted for the use of the young. No one can rend the work without being pleased with it. —Boston Daily Times. Just Published, in 1 vol. 8vo., cloth, $2 50; Library style, $3 DR. DIXON'S CELEBRATED WORK ON THE SACRED SCRIPTURES.

A General Introduction to the Sacred Scriptures, in a Series of Dissertations, Critical, Hermeneutical, and Historical.—
By the Rev. Joseph Dixon, D.D., Professor of Sacred Scripture and Hebrew in the Royal College of St. Patrick, Maynooth, (now Archbishop of Armagh, and Primate of all Ireland.) Illustrated with a Map of Palestine.

"Whoever has a family Bible in English should have Dixon's Introduction' by its side, to explain the text, to direct the reader, and to refute the historical calumnies with which many are apt to assail the Catholic version. The Publishers, in of-fering such a work, accurate enough for the scholar, yet clear enough for the unlearned, have supplied a void in every Ca-tholic library, and done every Catholic parent in America a personal service. —American Celt.

"We thank the most reverend author for his work, and we thank also Messrs. Murphy & Co. for their very next and convenient American edition of it.22—Brownson's Review.

Just Published, in 2 vols. Svo. cloth lettered, $3 75, THE POWER of the POPES in the MIDDLE_AGES or, Historical Researches into the Origin of the Temporal Sovereignty of the Holy See, and on the Constitutional Law of the Middle Ages relative to the Deposition of Sovereigns, preceded by an introduction respecting the Honors and Temporal Prerogatives accorded to Religion and its Ministers by Ancient Nations, particularly under the first Christian Emperors. By M. Gosselin, Director of the Seminary of St. Sulpice, Paris. Translated by the Rev. Matthew Kelly, Professor of French and Belles-Letters, St. Patrick's College, Maynooth.

Just Published, in 3 vols. Syon cloth lettered 25, 50

Just Published, in 3 vols. 8vo.; cloth lettered, $6 50, CARDINAL WISEMAN'S ESSAYS ON VARIOUS SUBJECTS.

New Works in Press:

ALL FOR JESUS; or, the EASY WAYS OF DIVINE LOVE. By the Very Rev. Father Faber, Priest of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri.

This work will be issued about the 20th of February, in a style of neatness commensurate with its extraordinary merits. It has met with an unprecedented sale in England, as may be gathered from the following extract from the author's pre-

"A large edition of the book having been sold off in about a month from its publication, I have taken considerable pains in preparing this second edition.

In again trusting my little work to the Catholics of England and Ireland, I wish could say how much I have been affected by the reception it has met with, not as if it reflected credit on myself, but he-cause it has shown that the name of Jesus could not be uttered without the echo coming, and that to speak of Him, however poorly, was to rouse, to southe, and to win the heart; and i was more grateful to me than any praise, to feel that my subject was my success."

Will be published early in 1854, in an Svo. volume of about 700 pages.

AN ABRIDGMENT of LINGARD'S HISTORY of ENG-LAND, with a Continuation from 1683 to 1853. By James Burke, Esq., Barrister-nt-Law.

We believe that it will be at once conceded, that at no neriod has it been of more importance than at the present, to place before the American public a true and impartial history of England.

No apology need therefore be made for the publication of an abridgment of Dr. Lingard's History of England, at a price that will at once place it within the reach of all classes.

THE PRIMACY of the APOSTOLIC SEE VINDIDATED. Fourth Revised Edition. By the Most Rev. Francis Patrick Kenrick, D.D., Archhishop of Balt.

In announcing this highly important work, which is univer-sally acknowledged the best vindication of the Primary, and the most triumphant answer to the entire Protestant statement ever written in the English language; the publishers deem it sufficient to state, that three large editions have been sold in a few years, and that the fourth will be carefully revised, and enlaiged.

THE DEVOUT CHILD OF MARY, the IMMAGULATE MOTHER of JESUS CHRIST. A Collection of Novems preparatory to the Festivals of the Blessed Virgin; Meditations, Hymns, and method of hearing Mass in her honor, &c. LINGARD'S HISTORY of ENGLAND, abridged for the use of Schools; with a Continuation up to the present time. This work will be ready early in 1854, in a neat 12mo, volume, and sold at a very low price. Early orders are respectfully solicited.

THE LIFE of ST. ALPHONSUS, by one of the Redemp-torist Fathers. This work will be issued in a neat 12mo.

Several important Works preparing for publication early in 1854.

Just Réceived, a large and complete assertment of HANICQ'S CELEBRATED LITURGICAL WORKS. Missale Romanum, printed in Red and Black-all sizes, from folio to 12mo.; various bindings.—Canon Misse Pontacalis, folio; 16 fine Engravings.—Misse Defunctorum, folio and 8vo. lolio; 16 fine Engravings.—Missæ Defunctorum, tolio and Svo. Missæ Pontificales, folio; 13 fine Engravings.—Brevarium Romanum, printed in Red and Black, all sizes, 4to. to 32mo; various bindings.—Brevarium (Totum) Romanum, 18mo.—Rituale Romanum, 18mo.—and Svo.—Martyrologium Romanum, &c., 4to.—Pontificale Romanum, &c., 3 vs. 8vo. 158 fine Engravings.—Graduale Romanum, Juxta Rutam Sacrosanctæ Romæ Ecclesiæ, 8vo.—Vesperale Romanum, cum Psalterio ex antiphonali Romano fideliter extractam, Svo.—Offician Beatæ Maria Virginis, in Latin and English, 18mo.—Offician Heldomadæ Sancta with notes, 32mo.—Homo Apostolicus, Ligorio, 3 vols.—Impedimentis (de) Matrimonio, 8vo.—Memoriale Vitæ Sacerdotalis, 18mo.—Celeste Palmetum, 18mo.

We have the pleasure to announce that we have been appointed Agents for the sale of Mr. Hanneg's publications in the United States, and will keep a large supply constantly on hand, which we will supply in various bindings, at very low prices.

A liberal discount to Booksellers, Canvassers, Religious Institutions, and others, ordering in quantities.

J. MURPHY & CO., Publishers and Catholic Booksellers, 178 Market Street, Baltimore.

NEW CANTON HOUSE, DALHOUSIE SQUARE.

GROCERIES FOR ONE MILLION

SUGARS—Lonf. Crushed, and Bright Muscovado.
TEAS—Gunpowder, Old Hyson, Young Hyson, Imperial, and Fine Twankay.
Fine Flavored Black Teas—Souchong, Congou, and Oolong. Rice, Flour. Oatmeal, Barley, Raisins, Currants, Figs, Almonds, Filberts, Pickles, Sauces, Mustard, White Pepper and Black Ground, Fina Old Java Coffee, roasted and ground daily; Cheese, Sugar Gured Hams. London Porter, White Wine Vinegar, Molasses, Salad Oil. Very Superior Port and Sherry Wines.
Erandy, Gin, Jamaien Spirits, &c., &c.,
And all other Articles required for family use, which will be Sold at the Lowest Price.

J. PHELAN.
N.B.—The Teas are very superior, some of which were purchased at the great Sale of the "John Dugdale" Cargo, direct from China. Sold at the Lowest Price.

HONEY.

Also, 300 lbs. of HONEY for Sale at the New Canton House, Dalhousic Square. J. PHELAN.

Montreal, July 6, 1853.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY, FOR the PETERBORO ROMAN CATHOLIC SEPARATE SCHOOL, a competent Teacher, to whom a salary of £70 or £75 will be given.

Apply (if by letter Post paid) to this Office, or to the Rev.

Mr. O'Ferrall, Peterboro, C.W.

WANTS A SITUATION.

A YOUNG GENTLEMAN, who has finished his Collegiate Course in the first Establishments of Ireland, wishes for a Si-Ireland.) Illustrated with a Map of Palestine.

This work is comprised in one volume, of about 500 pages Svo., embellished with a Map of Palestine. It is carefully printed from a good, clear, bold type, substantially bound in cloth lettered, and sold at less than one-half the price of the Dublin edition.

Course in the first Establishments of Ireland, wishes for a Situation as resident, or visiting Tutor; or would accept the charge of a respectable School. He knows both languages—English and French; and is furnished with the highest Testimonials, and Diploma as Academical Teacher from the Catholic Board of Education of Montreal.

Applications to be made to this office.

JUST PUBLISHED,

"THE METROPOLITAN."

EDITED BY J. V. HUNTINGTON.

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE, devoted to Literature, Practical Philosophy, and the interests of the Catholic Religion. Takes, Poetry, Essays, and Criticism will comprise its Literary Department; space will be found for the discussion of the great questions of Society and Government, especially in their practical and popular aspect, with a view to expose the errors and fallacies of the day—in short, to mingle the useful and the attractive, and to direct both by the highest rule of life towards its ultimate end, will be the aim of the Magazine.

Each number of the "Mateonolites?" will contain 64 pages.

Each number of the "Metropolitan" will contain 64 pages Each number of the "Metropolitan" will contain 64 pages royal octave, printed on good paper, from a clear, bold type, forming at the end of the year a handsome volume of nearly 800 pages of the Choicest Catholic Literature. Every number will be embellished with Pictorial lilustrations, which it is intended shall become more numerous and of a higher character from month to month, until the Magazine in that respect shall equal any monthly in the country. It is already the Cheapest Catholic Pariodical published in the English language, and the publishers are determined to spare no expense to make it the best, and to render it indispensable in every Catholic family.

TERMS-To City Subscribers, £2 per annum, invariably in advance. The work will be sent for one year, by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States, under 3,000 miles, on the receipt of $2.

CLUBS SUPPLIED ON THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

13" Such of our friends, in Canada, as may wish to avail themselves of the Club system, will add 24 cents additional for each copy ordered, as the American Postage has to be paid in

3 Copies will be sent by mail (to one address) to one year, for 6 Copies for 20 Copies (and one extra to the person getting up the

The Postage for clubs cannot be pre-paid by the Pub-No subscription wil be received for less than twelve months.

commencing, in all cases, with (February) the first number of the volume. The Cash system will be strictly adhered to.

CONTENTS

OP NO. 1-NEARLY ALL ORIGINAL.

THE NEW EDITOR'S INTRODUCTORY. THE RELIGION OF THE WORLD,

LETTERS FROM ABROAD.

STELLA MATUTINA.

DR. NEWMAN'S STYLE AND METHOD OF ARGUMENT.

LEISH EXCHISIONS. No. 1—with 4 fine Illustrations.—Dublin—Its Bay—The City and its Liberties.—St. Patrick's Cathedral.—Heminiscences of Old Dublin.—Strongbow's Tomb.

dra.—Areminiscences of Old Dublin.—Strongbow's Tomb.

—The Castle and its Recollections.—Glasnevin.

St. Theodosia at Amens (THE PRIZE POEM.) By Mrs. Anna H. Dorsey.

KATE O'CONNOR—A Story of Mixed Marriages.

The New French Dynasty.

How the Heather Used to Die—By the Virgin Anyte.

Review of Chineset Laterature.—Under this book well had

REVIEW OF CURRENT LITERATURE—Under this head will be found, among other interesting articles, some comments on Brownson's views in relation to the Temporal Power of the Popes, &c. Record of Current Events-

I.—Affairs of the Catholic Church in Rome, Germany, France, Spain, England, Ireland, Scotland, India, Canada, and the United States.

H.—Literary Intelligence.
H.—Popular Scientific Intelligence.
IV.—Political and Secular Intelligence.
The Rev. Clergy and others, who feel an interest in the successful washing and the successful and secular them. cess of this work, are respectfully solicited to interest them-selves in getting up clubs, agreeably to the terms above speci-in Cloth, for $2 50, or in half ealf, $3.

Fragents and Canvassers wanted in all parts of the United States and Canada, to whom liberal terms will be given.

J. MURPHY & CO., Publishers, 178 Market Street, Baltimore,

20 0

2 6

NEW BOOKS JUST RECEIVED

BY THE SUBSCRIBERS, PRACTICAL PIETY, by St. Francis of Sales, mus-PERSONAL SKETCHES, by Sir Jonah Barrington THE RISE and FALL of the IRISH NATION, by ditto.

SHANDY McGUIRE; or Tricks upon Travellers, ...
GAZETTEER of IRELAND, with Maps plates, Ac. 2 vols., HOUSEHOLD SURGERY; or, Hints on Emergencies,

PONTHFICALE ROMANUM. 3 vols.; beautifully illustrated, and bound in Morocco. Price,
LIGOURPS MORAL THEOLOGY (in Latin) 10 45 0

50 0 D. &. J. SADLIER & Co., Corner of Notre Dame and St. Francis Navier Sts.

P. MUNRO, M. D.,

Chief Physician of the Hotel-Dicu Hospital, and Professor in the School of M. of M., MOSS' BUILDINGS, 2nd HOUSE BLEURY STREET.

Medicine and Advice to the Poor (gratis) from 8 to 9 A. M. I to 2, and 6 to 7 P. M. NOTICE.

THE Subscriber being about to leave Montreal, begs leave to inform his Friends and the Public in general, that he has commenced to SELL OFF his entire STOCK, at extremely low prices, much cheaper than can be purchased in any other piace in the City. Purchasers would do well to call and judge for themselves, before buying elsewhere.

ROBERT M'ANDREW, No. 154, Notre Dame Street.

December 28, 1853.

Has constantly on hand, a large assortment of BOOTS AND SHOES, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL, CHEAP FOR CASH.

ALSO, A quantity of good SOLE LEATHER for Sale, 232 St. Paul Street, Montreal.

BRANDY, GIN, WINES. FOR SALE.

Martell's Brandy, in Bond
Do Free
DeKuyper's Gin, in Bond
Do Free, and in cases
Wines, in Wood and Boute
Tage of fath good samples Teas, a few good samples Tobacco, &c. &c. &c.

G. D. STUART, 154], St. Paul Street, Opposite the Hotel-Dicu Church.

Montreal, December 16.