Mercantile Summary.

THE catch of fish upon the shores of Nova Scotia for 1873 is authentically stated at the value of $6,200,000.

THE business men of Gananoque are taking steps to buy, build or charter a steamboat, to ply between that rising manufacturing town and Clayton N. Y., via Kingston.

THE imports at St. John, N.B., for January last were valued at $237,075 against $355,147 in January, 1873. The exports were $206,582, against $232,233—showing a decrease both in imports and exports.

Advices from Nova Scotia and parts of New Brunswick say that up to the close of January, the rain-storms and continuous thaws have expelled lumberers, choppers and teamsters out of the woods. This must result in a scarcity of firewood, of mill-logs and of ship-timber, unless the present and the next months weather shall be more favorable for lumbermen. For all this however, there is a good number of vessels contracted for, and a fair addition will be made to the tonnage of our Eastern provinces, though probably at increased cost and under unusual difficulty.
